AUTO SMASH KILLED TWO

Machine Plunges Over Railroad Embankment Near Ashland

DEATH WAS INSTANT

Father and Son Were Badly Injured and Mother and Daughter Were Caught Under the Machine

WERE OUT FOR A PLEASURE RIDE

Ashland, Pa., Oct. 4.—A big touring car, in which five persons were riding, plunged over a 25-foot embankment on the northern outskirts of Gordon, about two miles from here, at 9 o'clock this morning, landing on the main line tracks of the Reading Railway. Two of the occupants, mother and daughter, were killed instantly and the other three were injured, two of them so badly that they may die. All are residents of Ashland.

The party was composed of Peter Young, his family and a boy guest, who were out chestnutting.

Mrs. Young's skull was crushed and she was badly mangled by the machine, which fell upon her. Her daughter, Helen, had her skull crushed. Peter Young, the father, who was driving the machine, had his jaw broken and is otherwise injured. Peter Young, Jr., had his right leg fractured at the hip and has internal injuries. Charles Clark, son of Elmer Clark, manager of a store here, has his skull fractured and has internal injuries.

Peter Young, who was operating the machine, a 40-horse power car, is superintendent of the Ashland Screen Works and the machine was owned by the proprietor, A. L. Lauberstein. Mr. Young and party started out for a pleasure ride and had not been away from home more than fifteen minutes when the machine took its terrible plunge.

They were approaching the scene of the accident going up a slight grade skirting the embankment, which is formed by a railroad cut, when the machine suddenly veered to the right, tore out a post that held the guide rail, and with its occupants went hurtling down to death on the tracks below.

Mrs. Jacob Cole.

Mrs. Mary Alice Cole, wife of Jacob A. Cole died at her home in Coleville Saturday afternoon between two and three o'clock of apoplexy. She had been ill about a year and six months previous to her death.

Mrs. Cole was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Klepper and was born in Penns Valley June 4 1854, and was aged 54 years, 3 months and 29 days. She was married to Jacob Cole on October 5th, 1871, and has since been a resident of Coleville. She was a member of the United Brethern church of Bellefonte and was an earnest christian woman. She is survived by her husband, the following children, Mrs. Samuel Sprankle, of Buffalo Run; Mrs. Blanch Eckley, of Coleville; Carrie E., Jennie E., Russie, Otterbine and Darius at home, also Mrs. George Love of Bellefonte; three brothers, Emanuel, John and Harry Klepper, all of Philadelphia, and one sister Mrs. Herman Robb of Bellefonte.

The friends met at the house in Coleville at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and went to the United Brethren church where services were conducted at 2:30 by her pastor Rev. D. Barshinger. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Death of a Child.

Lauretta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, died at the home of her parents on Bishop street Thursday evening a quarter before seven o'clock of acute Bright's disease. The child had been in delicate health for some time and a little over a week ago her condition became serious. For several days previous to her death she was in an unconscious state, the parents keeping a vigilant watch as the life of their darling ebbed away.

Lauretta was one of the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and was aged 4 years and 5 months. She was a bright and interesting little girl and her death leaves a sad vacancy in the family circle.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, interment in the Catholic cemetery.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

By E. P. Cowell at the Presbyterian Church Sunday Night.

At the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, after Dr. Platts had concluded his address, showing the Love of our Saviour possessed by the people, Mr. E. P. Cowell, representing the Presbyterian College of Florida, spoke briefly on The Conquest of Florida, quoting from Psalms 44ch, and 45ch and other parts of the Bible where war and conquest are often mentioned. War against sin and vice are advised. For many years Florida has been known as the Land of Romances associated with war and adventure.

Going back several hundred years the thread of connection takes us to Saul, of Gibeah, annointed king by Samuel, raised an army of 350,000 fighting men and defeated the foes of God's people several hundred years Before Christ.

Later, David, the Shepherd Boy, was alone instrumental in defeating the Philistines, with God's aid, showing that the Lord accomplishes His object variously, through members or individuals.

David wished to build an imposing Temple to the Lord, but being a man of war prevented, so that work devolved upon his son Solomon, upon whose annointment as king was presented with an immense amount of gold and silver, weighing 46,000 tons, and valued at four thousand million dollars! This was obtained by David and his princes in their wars. Such wealth in those days is hard for us to appreciate, as it is difficult to realize that some of the now extinct ancient cities had populations of half a million people.

Continuing our thoughts on War and Conquest, large armies were not uncommon. In 1095 A. D., Peter the Hermit gathered a body of nearly 300,000 of all sorts, good, bad and indifferent called Crusiders, and bearing the Cross as their emblem, proceeded to Jerusalem to rescue the Holy Sepulchre. They were defeated. Next year Godfrey and other princes, of various parts of Europe gathered an army of 100,000 horsemen and 300,000 footmen, marched to Palestine and defeated the Mohammedans and Moslems, but the results were not lasting owing to the mixed motives of the Conquerors. Notice, that the Trail of Religious History leads from the East to the West. Some four hundred years later Ponce de Leon, who actuated by a desire to find the Fountain of Perpetual Youth, searched through the Bahama Island unsuccessfully, then sailed westward and discovered a coast which he called Florida, as the day was Palm Sunday, or in Spanish, Pascua Florida. He was killed by the Indians.

In 1537 Hernande De Soto landed at Tampa Bay with a strong, well equipped body, accompanied by priests and bearing the Cross, his desire being to convert the Indians to christianity. He met with some success but generally was opposed by the savages and encountered other obstacles to progress. This can readily be appreciated when we reflect that in 1847 the Seminole Indians kept at bay for several years the whole U. S. Army, largely owing to swamps, dense forests and morasses.

In 1861 began another war, in which Florida was on the losing side, being depleted of men and money. The people are our defeated brothers. Remember that in 1540 Spanish Florida territory extended from Key West to Nova Scotia, and West to New Spain (Mexico) or Mississippi River; embracing the land we are now on. This state needs Educational facilities for the whites, which the Presbyterian College of Florida, at Eustis affords, a small college, from such come the Divinity students to the Princeton Seminary. Started by Northern and Southern Presbyterians, who provided two college buildings and sixteen acres of land, we have sixty students, and with more applying we need an additional building. Will you help in the Christian Conquest of Florida and educate the people? Peace is better than war, love is stronger than hate, and God's Kingdom is supreme over the transient empires of this little world.

IRON AND STEEL OUTPUT TREBLED

Report of Statistics Chief Makes Comparisons with 1906.

INDUSTRIAL GROWTH

While Iron and Steel Lead in State's Industries Other Manufactures Play Important Part

INTERESTING STATISTICAL STUDY

The proud position attained by Pennsylvania as a manufacturing State, and the extent to which our industries have developed under the Republican policy of protection is shown by the figures in the annual report of Chief John L. Rockey, of the Bureau of Industrial Statistics of the Department of Internal Affairs.

In that portion of his report which deals with manufactured products Mr. Rockey gives a great amount of valuable statistical information, making comparisons between various periods.

Iron and steel, of course, occupies a prominent place, and the report shows that in the twelve years since 1896 the product of Pennsylvania furnaces has trebled, while the amount of finished steel product has increased four times during that period.

The report gives statistics concerning various other manufactured products, including the plate, textiles, silk and powder.

Some of the more important figures are summarized as follows:

In 1896 the blast furnaces of Pennsylvania produced 4,026,350 gross tons of pig iron, with a value of $45,172, 039, and in 1907 the total gross tonnage was 11,311,985, at a market value of $205,443,155. These furnaces employed 18,950 persons, who earned during the year $12,675,001. The production of finished iron and steel in 1896 was 3,837,379 gross tons, and in 1907 was 22,953,047 gross tons. The market value of this tonnage in 1907 was $504,167,225, and its production involved the employment of 137,712 persons, who earned $91,413,384 during the year. More than one-half of this product, or 52 per cent., was manufactured in the county of Allegheny.

The production of tin plate in 1907 was 633,902,496 pounds, having a value of $22,980,589 employing 7365 persons, who earned $5,319,694.

There are 638 factories, mostly in Philadelphia and vicinity, engaged in the production of textiles. The factories last year produced a product valued at $130,503,116, gave employment to 25,974 males and 31,246 females and 5,071 minors, paying a total of $26,778,585 in wages during the year.

Whereas twenty years ago there were less than a dozen silk mills in Pennsylvania, 151 silk weaving and throwing mills in opertion in the state. The value of the their product for the year was $52,780,830. They employed 7045 males, 14,123 females and 4185 minors, and paid in wages aggregating $8,777,970.

Tenty-one powder mills in Pennsylvania last year manufactured 84,569,274 pounds of explosives having a value of $4,965,077.

Henry Vitalini.

Henry Vitalini, a well known and highly respected Italian who resided on South Spring street, died at his home Friday night fifteen minutes before eleven o'clock. He had been ill for the past two years with kidney trouble and for the past four months was afflicted with septicemia.

Mr. Vitalini was a native of Italy, and was born near Genoa December 19, 1830, being aged 77 years, 11 months and 13 days. He came to America about 45 years ago and for some time was located in California. For the past 22 years he has been a resident of Bellefonte and was employed as a cook at various times at several of the hotels. In 1892 he was married to Miss Mary Gleen, of Pleasant Gap. His wife survives him. He also leaves three sisters and one brother in Italy. Mr. Vitalini was a member of the Catholic church and was always devout in his worship, strong in his integrity and a man who commanded the respect of all.

Requiem mass was held in St. John's Catholic church Tuesday morning at ten o'clock by the Rev. Father McArdle. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

TWO LIGHT PROPOSITIONS.

Received by the Borough Council at the Monday Evening Session.

The regular monthly session of the borough council was called to order at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening by President Judge. Members present were Harper, Hamilton, Keller, Musser, Wagner Shuey and Kirk.

When the president asked for communications from citizens John Bower, representing D. S. Drake and F. H. Fisher, presented an ordinance which provides for the right of the said parties to erect poles and wires through the streets and alleys of Bellefonte for the purpose of furnishing electric light and power to the residents of the town and for street lighting purposes. The ordinance provided that the maximum charge for arc lights of 2000 candle candle power should not be more than $50 per annum, and that the maximum charge for residence and commercial use should not be more than seven cents per kilowatt hour. The ordinance further provided that in case the plant was at any time offered for sale the borough should have the first right of purchase. Action on the ordinance was deferred until the next night of meeting.

A bid for lighting the streets was also submitted by these parties, pending on the granting of the franchise.

Notary Harry Keller administered the oath of office to John Bower, the newly elected fire marshal.

The village Improvement committee reported that residents of South Spring street had asked for a walk along the side of the street next to the Pruner orphanage.

The special committee on the water power reported that they had received an offer of $25,000 at 5 per cent. per annum for the purpose of erecting a borough electric light plant, the money to be paid back in such installments as the borough should designate.

On motion the committee was authorized to further investigate and enter into negotiations with the party or parties making the offer and report. The name of the party making the proposition was not divulged.

Other business of minor importance was transacted and bills ordered paid.

Two Shooting Accidents.

Arthur Blair of Renovo, on a hunting trip near North Bend, Saturday afternoon, accidentally shot himself in the head in a very unusual manner. With a revolver he fired at a bird in a bush. Just then a sudden gust of wind raised his cap and grabbed for it in such a manner that his revolver was again discharged. The bullet entered his head just below his right ear. Guy Rankin and a man named Samsworth found Blair in a dazed condition and assisted him to North Bend, whence he was taken on a train to Renovo. Dr. Fulmer removed the bullet from under the scalp in the back part of the man's head. Blair's condition was such after the operation that his recovery was looked for.

Millard Cliff, 11 years' old, a son of Mrs. Duff Trump, of Farwell, near Renovo, has a bad face wound. He shot himself while playing with a revolver. He will recover.

Daniel Brungard.

Daniel Brungard, one of Loganton's prominent citizens and proprietor of the creamery at that place, died suddenly Tuesday night of heart failure. He was ill about an hour.

Mr. Brungard was reared on a farm and after reaching manhood engaged in farming for himself. For some years he was engaged in the lumber business in Brush valley with his brother-in-law. He was an industrious man and has held a number of offices of trust, being a member of the Loganton council. He was very successful in the creamery business in Loganton and for the past fifteen years has been attending the Lock Haven markets, supplying the people with fresh butter and eggs.

The deceased was in his 65th year and is survived by his widow, one son, Guy, of Wheeling, W. Va., and two daughters Mrs. W. F. Stoner, of Wolf's Store, Flossie at home, and one brother, A. W. Brungard, of Lock Haven.

The funeral took place Saturday morning from the Lutheran church in Loganton.

—The members of Company B. and the Fifth regiment bugle corps returned home on the 9 28 train Wednesday forenoon from attending the big military parade in Philadelphia on Monday. They report having had a very enjoyable time in sight seeing about the city.

A NEW TRIAL IS URGED

Counsel for Convicted Men Argue Points of Alleged Error.

DATE WAS NOT NAMED

From the Arguments Made it is Inferred That the State is Anxious to Try Huston the Architect.

STATE WILL PUSH THE NEXT TRIAL

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—Arguments lasting practically all day and far into the night, were made before Judge George Kunkel on the motion for a new trial in the conspiracy case of Furniture Contractor John H. Sanderson and the three former State officials convicted with him of conspiring to defraud the State out of $19,000 in a Capitol furniture bill.

The pleadings were characterized by criticism of the rulings of Judge Kunkel on the part of the four lawyers who spoke for the defendants and vigorous reputation by the legal representatives of the Commonwealth.

While the argument was in progress steps were taken to bring to the attention of the Judge and attorneys that the State proposed to push the next trial, and in the clash which ensued, there cropped out signs that the State is anxious to get Huston on trial and that the other defendants lawyers were not very sorry for it.

This appeared when District Attorney Weiss suggested to the Court that the date for the next trial be fixed for November 23, saying the State had fixed upon a furniture contract case implicating the very men asking new trial today and Architict Huston. Attorneys for the defense were on their feet in an instant protesting that they should not be called upon to go on trial in a case involving the principles as that which was being argued before the latter could be finally determined.

The statement was made bluntly to Judge Kunkel that there was intention to appeal the motion for a new trial to the highest court in the event of the Judge refusing to send the case before a jury again, but it was disregarded by him.

The State left to Judge Kunkel the fixing of the date, but intimated a strong desire to have the furnitnre case called.

Brett—Neff

A very pretty wedding took place at the bride's home at Curtin Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when Miss Alice S. Neff was united in marriage to Thomas P. Brett of Perry, Kansas. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Taylor of Howard, the bride's pastor. Mrs. Lucas of Clearfield, and Mrs. Bridge of Jersey Shore, sisters of the bride acted as matrons. Two nieces were flower girls. The wedding was attend by about thirty friends of the contracting parties.

Miss Neff is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Neff. She was one of the county's most efficient school teachers and has a host of friends among the teaching fraternity, besides being a lady of many accomplishments. The groom is a prosperous real estate man of Perry.

Following an elaborate wedding dinner the newly married couple left on the evening train for the west and will make their home in Perry. Miss Neff goes to her home with the best wishes of her many friends in Centre county.

Second Degree Murder

Conrad Whyne, who shot and killed his son in a fit of drunken passion at his home near Mt. Carmel on a Sunday night in February, was convicted of murder in the second degree at Sunbury on Wednesday. Whyne took the stand in his own defense and broke down while telling the story of his debauch. He said he did not know what he was doing until he saw his son dead at his feet. He claimed he was very much intoxicated at the time of the killing.

His sons, Charles and Aaron, and a daughter testified that he was drunk when he shot his son and that the latter was trying to enter his mother's home to protect her from threatened abuse.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE.

An Interesting Program Has Been Arranged for the Fourth District

The fall conference of the fourth district of the Pennsylvania Young Men's Christian Association will be held in Bellefonte on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 16, 17 and 18. The conference will begin Friday evening when a banquet will be given at the Y. M. C. A. building. Prof. James R. Hughes will act as toastmaster. The address of welcome will be made by Gen. James A. Beaver, and will be responded to by John H. Mathias, of Lewisburg. Interesting discussions will take place during the balance of the evening.

The Saturday morning session will be held in the United Brethern church, opening at 8:30 with a song and praise service and continuing until 10:30 with important papers and discussions. At 10:45 the delegates will leave over the Bellefonte Central railroad for State College. Luncheon will be served to them there by President and Mrs. Sparks. Prof. F. H. Green of West Chester, will deliver an address in the auditorium and the balance of the afternoon will be spent in sight seeing and a football game between Geneva and State.

The Saturday evening session will be held in the Methodist church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock with a song service. This will be followed with the stereopticon and an address by President Sparks, of State College. Sunday morning Rev. J. Allison Platts will conduct quiet hour services at the Y. M. C. A. from 9 until 10 o'clock. In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a men's mass meeting will be held in the court house. The speaker for the occasion will be Prof. F. H. Green, of West Chester. At the same time a boys' meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms and they will be addressed by Geo. B. Reimensnyder, of Sunbury.

The Union farewell service will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening and will be in charge of Prof. Green.

For the benefit of those going to State on Saturday the railroad company has granted a rate of 50 cents for the round trip.

This conference embraces all the city, railroad, student and volunteer associations in the central part of the state and will be attended by quite a few delegates from the various associations. A good helpful time is anticipated by all.

William J. Haagen.

William J. Haagen, a life long resident of Beech Creek township, Clinton county died at his home Friday night aged 69 years. Mr. Haagen was born, reared and lived all his life where he died. He was a farmer by occupation and followed it all his life and was one of the most progressive and successful farmers in that township. He was a member of the Disciple church and a man of integrity and uprightness and was one of the community's most respected citizens. Through his enterprise and frugality he was the possessor of one of the finest farms in Bald Eagle valley.

Surviving him are his wife, one son, Harry, and three daughters, Mabel, Nettie and Elsie.

Jonathan Hess.

Jonathan Hess, a well known resident of Williamsport, died at the home of his son James in that city Sunday morning of heart disease. Mr. Hess was born near Pine Grove Mills and was aged 71 years. He has been a resident of Williamsport for about 20 years. Surviving him are one son, James, and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Askey, both of Williamsport.

Funeral services were held at the home of his son James Monday evening by the Rev. W. F. Rentz of the Lutheran church. The remains were taken to Pine Grove Mills on Tuesday, services being conducted there by Rev. Dunlap, of Montoursville. Interment was made at Pine Grove Mills.

TUBERCULOSIS TEST MADE

Children Were Inoculated to Show Bovine Infection

DR. KOCH'S THEORY

Claims That Bovine Tuberculosis Cannot Be Transmitted to Human Beings.

OTHER DOCTORS CONTRADICT HIM

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30 —Notwithstanding the fact that Dr. Robert Koch today at the International Congress on Tuberculosis reaffirmed his theory that bovine tuberculosis cannot be transmitted to human beings, it was stated today that a series of remarkable tests now being conducted here tended to corroborate the theory.

The tests are being made upon charity children, at the Children's Hospital by Dr. Detre, of Budapest, Hungary, and Dr. Pirquet, of Vienna. These tests consist of the injection of tuberculin in the arms of children suffering from incipient tuberculosis. It was at first inaccurately stated that the living bacilli of tuberculosis were injected.

The first operation was performed on Monday. The children, ten in number, came forward willingly with bared arms and received the inoculation on the inside of their forearms. A superficial incision was made by an attending physician, the tuberculin injected and the children felt as though they were getting a "new vaccination." They felt no pain or not enough to make them wince.

There have been communications in the local papers from laymen asking if these charity children are to be treated as guinea pigs or rabbits, in being made the subject of experiments. None of the physicians or scientists, however, has made any suggestion of a protest against the inoculation and Dr. C. N. Acker, physician in charge of the Children's Hospital, made the following statement defending the test, showing its purpose and what is expected to be accomplished by it.—

"This test is commonly employed in hospitals, and has been employed in the hospitals, and has been employed in the Children's Hospital from time to time since the test has been known to confirm the diagnosis of tuberculosis.

"There are three tests. One is known as the Chalmette test, the tuberculin being put in the eye of the subject. Then there is the Von Pirquet test, which was made this afternoon at the hospital, the tuberculin being used on the surface of the skin the same as in vaccination.

"The third was the Detre test, which was made at the hospital Monday. The latter is made to distinguish between the bovine and human tuberculosis, both human and bovine bacilli being employed.

"Dr. Koch holds that bovine tuberculosis cannot be transmitted to human beings.

"The tests made here were to determine whether the child has bovine or human tuberculosis. It is not, in facts a test, but is diagnostic in character, and is distinctly for the benefit of the patient.

"The so-called tests are similar to the diagnosis for typhoid fever by the Vidal reaction—that is, in cases of typhoid some of the blood of the patient is taken for examination."

Youth Was Insane

Arthur Welliver, the 18-year-old youth who murderously assaulted aged Mrs. Benfield, widow of former Associate Judge Benfield, of Montour county at her home in West Hemlock township will never be tried for the offense. There is no do doubt but that he will be committed to an institution for the criminally insane. The youth is a degenerate. Justice of the Peace Oggleby, of Danville went through the formality Monday evening of this week of having the youth waive a hearing, going to the Montour county jail for the purpose. Bail was fixed at $5,000, which could not be furnished, and Welliver will be kept in jail until he can be placed in an institution. Counsel for Mrs. Benfield realized that no charge can stand against the youth because of his mental condition.

Mrs. Benfield's condition is so greatly imdroved that there is little doubt about her ultimate recovery.

Bellefonte 43, Altoona 0.

The Bellefonte Academy eleven overwhelmingly defeated the Altoona High School team at the athletic field Saturday afternoon by the score of 43 to 0. The first ten minutes of the game indicated a close contest but the Academy boys soon demonstrated their superiority over Altoona in every point of the game. The High school boys were outclassed in every respect and were unable to keep the ball in their possession long enough to accomplish anything, in one instance being driven back 25 yards with the ball in their possession. Smith, Dillon and Thomas were conspicuous all through the game and Smith's goal from the field was a very pretty play.

The line up:

Altoona H. S.	Positions.	Bellefonte Acad.
Plummer, F	centre	(Boyd) Philliber
Brenneck, H.	right guard	(Shenk) Succoop
Brenaeck	right tackle	(South) Elliot
Gettemy (Capt.)	right end	(Sleppy) Struble
Ginder	lest end	Thomas
Plummer, J.	quarter back	Wright (McCandle)
Burley	right half-back	Dillon
Gamble	left half-back	(Oberlin) Shields
Hite	full-back	Smith (Capt.)

Referee, Bush. Umpire, Fleming. Touchdowns, Dillon 5, Smith 1, Elliott 1. Gols from touchdowns, Oberlin 4. Goals from field-Smith.

State College was defeated by the Carlisle Indians at Wilkes-Barre Saturday afternoon by the score of 12 5. The State boys scored five minutes after the first half started on a blocked kick by Weaver, while Vorhis grabbed the ball and was across the line before an Indian could grab him. After this score the ball was mostly in State's territory and a fast and featured game was played, the Indians scoring three field goals kicked by Thorpe.

The State students made the trip to Wilkes-Barre on a special over the L & T road, there being 358 of them on the special besides those who went via Lock Haven.

Corner Stone Laying.

Under the most auspious circumstances the corner stone of the new Reformed church at Howard was laid Sunday afternoon. Rev. H. I. Crow, of Hublersburg, the pastor, who was largely instrumental in the building of the house of worship for the Howard congregation, presided over the services. The ceremonies were opened by the ritualistic address and prayer, followed by a hymn by a selected choir and prayer by Rev. R. S. Taylor of the Methodist church. Addresses were made by Rev. W. W Rhoads of the United Evangelical church; Rev. H. C. Patterson, of the Christian church of Blanchard and Howard, Rev. R. S. Taylor and Rev. Samuel H. Stein, pastor of the St. Lukes Reformed church of Lock Haven. The remarks of the pastors were all very appropriate to the occasion.

The handsome marble corner stone was the gift of J. Will Mayes, the marble and granite dealer of Howard, and before being put in position Rev. Crow placed in it the Holy Bible, constitution of the church, the Heidelburg chatechism a copy of the Howard Hustler, a copy of the Centre Democrat, a list of the members of the church and consistory, the names of the building committee, the architect and contractor and a program of the ceremonies.

The church will be a handsome brick structure and when completed will be a very suitable house of worship for the growing congregation at Howard. A large amount of the fund for the erection of the church has been raised.

"A Good Fellow

"A Good Fellow" is a phrase that we hear almost daily. It is applied to both sexes. We term a man as being "A Good Fellow" because he possesses a jovial disposition, is liberal, and is a past master at entertaing. He knows how to make friends, and has a faculty of holding them. He has the distinction of having people seek his society after once being introduced.

"A Good fellow" as applied to the weaker sex is materially the same. In speaking of a woman as being a "A Good Fellow," denotes that she is willing to sacrifice her own pleasures and comforts for the entertaining and enjoyment of others.

"A Good Fellow" which is the title of a new comedy written by Mark E. Swan, depicts this character most vividly. It tell a story of a "chic" little girl disguising herself in male attire for the purpose of visiting the man whom she has secretly married, and whose companship has been denied her, the consequences of which bring about many funny complications. Femine wit and the cunning which are brought into play accomplish the end desired.

"A Good Fellow" will be the attraction at the Garman opera house on Thursday October 8th at which time the patrons of our local theatre will have an opportunity of enjoying a good laugh.

DRIVER ASLEEP HORSE KILLED

Did Not Know He Had Been in Railroad Accident

CREW WAS SURPRISED

Hughesville Man's Horse Was Killed While He Sat In His Buggy Asleep Uninjured.

CONDUCTOR HAD TO AWAKEN THE MAN

A young man named Berger, residing in Hughesville, had a very narrow escape from being killed by a freight train near Muncy, but, strange to say, he was not aware of the fact until he was so informed by the conductorjof the train.

Berger was driving from Hughesville to Muncy, early Wednesday morning and went to sleep, the horse knowing the road and keeping to it. A short distance above Muncy the road crosses the track of the Pennsylvania railroad and as the horse, drawing his sleep driver, started to cross the tracks they were hit by a westbound freight. The horse was hurled clear of the buggy and thrown to the side of the tracks, the blow of the engine having killed it.

The buggy with its occupant was not hurt in the least, the shafts having been snapped free, jolting the vehicle but little. The train passed the crossing and the conductor and other members of the crew hastened back to the scene of the accident, fully expecting to pick up the mangled remains of the lone traveller. To their surprise he was laying back in the buggy sound asleep, and the conductor then awoke Berger and told him of the accident. To say that he was surprised would be expressing it mildly.

Righteous Rivalry.

Facts are God's arguments, some of them sometimes verystubborn affecting human agency. Regarding the Bible school work in Coleville, I wish to state one fact that there is no "trouble" to speak of religiously in our suburban village.

Certainly I can say, on the olive branch line there is far more of righteous rivalry than there is of unrighteous opposition.

It is our constant endeavor to follow the spostolic injunction, "Provoke one another unto love and good works." Heb. 10:24. Deducting the men who have to work on Sundays and the mothers with very small children and doing their own house-work, there are enough left there for two Bible Schools with an overage attendance of at least fifty all the year around. Another fact of vital importance everywhere. In Coleville, just now it is safe to say, there are five to one more than ever before daily taking and happily experiencing what our Saviour repeatedly tells us is the first step in Christian living. See Luke 9:33. Look up and find these words of Holy Writ, then "Think on these things." Phil. 4:8. Lastly, a fact cheery and Divinely helpful I have known Rev. B. C. Conner D. S. more than a generation. On his first charge, the Sinnemahoning district I first met him in August 1876 in a Union Sunday school in a Union church on Grove Hill. Most christianly, he encouraged that school and has cheerfully co-operated with me ever since that date until this present as "laborers together with God." To God be all the glory.

Wild Animals Made Tame.

Some strange stories are told by men who fought the recent forest fires. H H. Edwards of DuBois relates the following as having occured while taking some horse from a camp near Tyler.

When Edwards left the camp the flames were filling the woods and he had no time to loiter not knowing whether he could get through with his charges. Beasts and birds of the forest of all kinds were scurrying through the brush for places of safety. When he struck the road he counted 14 deer ahead of him.

The animals, probably utterly terrified, were as tame as cows and paid not the slightest attention to the humans that had joined their company. The usually shy animals went along with the horses for about a mile when they turned off and plunged into a green woods. Mr. Edwards, the day before, with some companions, met up with four bears. The bruin family had apparently reached the "don't care a darn" stage, and regarded the close presence of their two-legged enemies with indifference, while the woodsmen on their part were too busy and tired to devote any attention to the bears. The animals finally loped off into the smoke.

Cigarettes Again.

EDITOR DAILY NEWS.

Dear Sir:—

If the brother who sent to you that timely, plainly, outspoken and too truthful communication concerning cigarettes cigarette smokers, cigarette sellers and cigarette law-breakers, will call on me at No. 57 E. Linn St. I will, Deo juvante, first of all, thank him for what he has written, then invite him to stay for the next meal (food plain, but well cooked and wholesome) so we can talk about it, unite against these needless cigarette doings, nefarious for the cigarette makers, nefarious for the cigarette buyers and sellers, and well, I cannot apply that adjective to our dear little boys and lads growing so fast into manhood. I cannot say they are bad for so doing, much less nefarious, for really when I think of the backing they have, I can hardly blame these little fellows and growing-up men. Then, lastly I wish to tell him that I have a full supply of anti-cigarette leaflets I will freely give him, if he has not the money to partly pay for the printing. No charge. The day has come, the time is now here, not only for all voters, but for everybody to "Wake up and do your duty."

Wake up and lookout. Some thing is coming, coming sure. See 2 Peter 3: 10-13.

Fished a Tombstone

The low condition of the Susquehanna river at Sunbury has been responsible for a number of peculiar incidents says the Sunbury Daily Item, but probably the most extraordinary event was the recent finding of a large tombstone in the bed of the stream by Frank Martin, of Northumberland.

Martin was fishing in the West Branch a short distance above the bridge when he noticed a large flat stone in about three feet of water. The regular proportions aroused his courtosity and after much hard work he managed to get it in his boat when he found it to be a marble tombstone. Washing the mud from the face the following inscription was plainly visible:

"John Corcoren. Died 1861, at the age of 87 years and 13 days."

It is believed that the stone was washed away from some cemetery which is located along the river and carried down the stream by the high water during one of the floods before the dam was torn away.

Eggs is Eggs.

Let us sing the praise of the Great American Hen, who, during the past may well have cackled with pride over the production of nearly one billion three hundred million dozens of eggs! Do you realize what that means? Well, listen:

If, instead of remaining quietly at home in Iowa, she had chosen to demonstrate her powers to the universe at large, the hen might have laid those each two inches long, end to end, in a continuous chain reaching 238,818 miles up to the moon, back again, and then more than half way around the world for good measure—a total of 492 424 miles of eggs! Furthermore, if those had been made into omelet half an inch thick, that omelet would easily have covered Manhattan Island, an area of twenty-two square miles!

An old Mohammedan legend tells that King Solomon used to travel through the air with all his armies on a wonderful flying carpet, protected from the rays of the sun by the wings of a host of birds. Now, according to the poultry census, there are in the United States about two hundred and eighty millions of chickens, guinea fowls, turkeys, geese and ducks of the poultry voting age, which is three months or over. If required to furnish a moving canopy like that of King Solomon, the barn yard fowls of this country, allowing only a foot of spread to each, could easily shadow a space of ten square miles.

Camphor to Keep Away Mice

Country people long ago discovered that lumps of camphor scattered through their pantries and cellars would drive off the pest of tiny red ants that sometimes, and without apparent cause, infest places where food is placed. It is now known that mice and rats also have an aversion to camphor, and will not go where it is A lump of it placed at the mouth of rat and mice holes, while waiting for the carpenter is a sufficient deterrent. If one is in the habit of placing table cloths in hampers to wait for washing-day a lump of camphor in a cheesecloth bag tied to the hampor will keep mice away and always be in its place.

Grazieryille Brick Plant.

It is said that one of the largest brick plants in Central Pennsylvania is to be established at Grazirville, just west of Tyrone, by the Pennsylvania Pressed Brick company, that company having purchased a large track of land at that place and intending to begin operations just as the necessary buildings and furnaces can be built. The operations will cover an area of two acres and will be devoted to the manufacture of a fine quality of shale paving brick. Work on the buildings for the new brick plant has been commenced.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Stuart on Roads.

In his address at the Blair county fair Wednesday Governor Stuart said:

"The general complaint against the present roads is that they will not last. Road maintenance is a difficult problem. No house, no building, no mechanical plant, will remain intact if nobody looks after it. The obligation to take care of state roads rests upon the townships, and when they do not perform that duty, it is not the state's fault. The state should build one great highway leading from its eastern to its western border and the state should maintain that highway. Lateral roads may then be built up to that highway. If the people will help I will do my part to build one good highway in this state."

Governor Stuart is studying the road problem and is making automobile tours through roads leading across the Allegheny mountains with a view to determine the best possible route for the main state highway and the information gained on these tours will be incorporated in his message to the legislature.

State College Horse Show.

An exhibition of horses will be seen at State College on Oct. 31. The show has been inaugurated by local men and is to include horses owned within a radius of 15 miles of State College. The animals must have been in the county since April 1, 1908, and in the hands of the present owner since July 1.

The exhibition will be held on the athletic field and in the woods west of the Agricultural building. The judging will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning, when all classes are to be judged by Prof. Carl Gay, an expert, who will place the ribbons. A parade of the prize winners will take place in the afternoon, in the order of their classification.

The show and the parade will be under the supervision of a committee composed of members of the college faculty, citizen of State College and farmers from the territory included.

$20,000 for Butterflies.

The world famous collection of butterflies and moths, comprising between 75,000 and 100,000 specimens, of the late Herman Strecker, of Reading has been sold by his widow to the Field Museum of Natural History, of Chicago, for $20,000.

The extensive library and manuscripts pertaining to the science owned by Mr. Strecker, go with the purchase. Mr. Strecker spent forty years acquiring the collection, which is the second largest in the world.

Some years ago the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Science offered $20,000 for the collection, but the deal fell through.

PENNSYLVANIA IN NATIONAL FIGHT

Penrose as Aid to Hitchcock Keeps Tariff to Front.

IN INTEREST OF THIS STATE

Manufacturers and Artisans, and All Engaged in Industrial Enterprises, and Grangers and Business Men of the Keystone Commonwealth Exhibiting a Natural Loyalty to the Cause of Republicanism.

[Special Correspondence.]

New York, Sept. 29.

Pennsylvania is becoming daily more prominent in the national Republican campaign, if one is to judge from the activity of Pennsylvanians about the national committee headquarters, and the consideration that is being paid to the claims of the state and her party leaders.

Since Senator Penrose was called to the assistance of Chairman Hitchcock as a member of the executive committee of the national committee, and was urged to make his headquarters in the offices fitted up for him in the national committee's building, he has had to make many appointments with Pennsylvanians about both state and national campaign matters to meet him here. He will have little time to give to personal or local matters until after the national election shall be over. The direction of the campaigns in a number of doubtful states has been left to Senator Penrose, and he is called into consultations daily upon questions affecting the management of the general canvass.

Tariff Issue Made Prominent.

Bryan's attitude, particularly upon the tariff issue, has been of special concern to Pennsylvanians, who are so vitally interested in the maintenance of a tariff which shall protect the workingmen and the farmers of the Keystone state from foreign competition.

Senator Penrose, in all of his speeches this year, and in exerting whatever influence he may have in shaping the policy of the other campaign managers, has made the tariff an issue of special prominence, and he does this as a particular champion of the industries and the other interests of his native state which he believes would be jeopardized by the election of Bryan and an inauguration of the free trade doctrines of the Democracy.

Pennsylvania Interests Concerned.

Many of the great Pennsylvania concerns, the carpet manufacturers of Philadelphia, the steel mills in western and northeastern Pennsylvania, the coal companies of the bituminous and anthracite regions, the great coke and cement interests, and the many other industrial enterprises which have millions of Pennsylvania capital invested, and which employ hundreds of thousands of men and women, have offices in this city.

The officials of these companies are pleased to see the interest taken in the national campaign by Senator Penrose, as they recognize the importance of the outcome of the election not only to those who have money invested in their plants, but to those who look to the successful operation of those firms and companies for employment.

The great granger and dairy interests of Pennsylvania, which find ready markets for their products right at home when these industrial plants are running and their employes are getting remunerative wages, are just as much concerned and are evincing just as much interest in the efforts to elect the Republican national ticket.

Farmers Are For Taft.

Reports from the farming districts of not only Pennsylvania, but New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana and like states, which have large manufacturing interests, show that the trend of sentiment is very strongly toward the Republican party this year.

Taft and Sherman are as popular with the farmers as they are with the wage earners, who realize the importance of a continuance of the policy of a protective tariff under which American industries have been built up and developed.

There are marshalling in the various industrial centers great armies of American workingmen, who will march to the polls in November and vote the full Republican ticket.

A Great Army Lining Up.

Reports received at the national committee headquarters show that in Pennsylvania the steel workers, the miners, the cokers, the furnace men, the weavers, the cement workers, the mill men, the railway employes and other workingmen employed by tributary interests, are going to vote with the Republican party.

Business men realize the disaster that would come to them with Bryan in the White House and Democrats in control of the lower house of congress, and with some of the so-called Republican senators not to be depended upon in tariff legislation. They are also lined up for Taft.

All reports to the contrary, there is absolute harmony among the managers of the Republican national committee, and all information points to the election of Taft and Sherman by a good majority in the electoral college.

Halevy and the Duc de Morny.

It may not be generally known in what circumstances Halevy owed his advancement in the French civil service to the Duc de Morny. The duke, an amateur of the arts, had begun to write the libretto of a comic opera of which Offenbach was to provide the music. He found that he had not the time—or perhaps that he had not the talent—to finish it. He sought a collaborator, and Halevy came to the rescue and kept his secret. When, therefore, the office of the ministry of Algeria, which he held, was suppressed he had no hesitation in asking his august patron for the post which he sought on the Journal Officiel. "The very thing!" exclaimed the duke. "There is six months' vacation when the chamber is not sitting, so that you will have plenty of time to write for the stage." And he gave him a note to the head of the department, consisting of the simple words, "Make arrangements to give the bearer the post for which he will ask you."—Westminster Gazette.

Nor a Hospital Either.

"Talking of our British cousins?" inquired the tax attorney of the Southern Pacific. "Well, I heard one the other day. Big fat Britisher shoved into one of those compartments at the last moment. There was an American in there reading his newspaper.

"'It's sixty miles to my station,' remarked the Englishman, 'and, I say, old chap, I'm treating myself for a wounded foot, and I say, if you don't mind, I'll put some of this iodoform on my ankle. Beastly smelling stuff!'

"'Go ahead,' said the American. But when he got the full odor of it he shoved up a window and pulled out a cigar and lighted it and began puffing away vigorously.

"'Here, here, my good fellow,' protested the Englishman, 'this is no smoking compartment!'"—San Francisco Chronicle.

Bryan's Mistakes.

If the Bryan monetary scheme had been accepted, the country's industries, agricultural and manufacturing, would have been demoralized. We should, as Governor Hughes puts it, "have been overwhelmed with disaster;" for both theories could not be right, and if the gold standard theory was right, as it has been proven to be, Mr. Bryan's free-coinage-of-silver theory was wrong. As to the government ownership of railroads, even Mr. Bryan seems quickly to have recognized the revolutionary and chaotic consequences which must follow any governmental attempt to put such a scheme to realization. But how presumptuous and absurd it is for any party to ask the American people to accept a man as the chief executive of the nation who has stood sponsor for two such governmental policies. The man who reasoned so crudely in 1896, in 1900 and later cannot be supposed to have escaped the limitations with which he was encumbered. One who has been twice wrong in his main theories is not the man to be put in a place of the highest responsibility.—Allentown Chronicle and News.

The Drift From Bryan.

This drift of Democrats away from Bryan and over to Taft in many of the southern states has more significance than may appear on the surface. It marks a tendency which is undoubtedly in operation all over the country. While the change of base may not be great enough to sweep any of the old southern Democratic fastnesses into the Republican column, it will count for much in the northern and western states, where there is no negro issue to hold men in line for a ticket whose head they distrust and whose principles they hate. Hundreds of thousands of men who voted for Bryan in his two previous canvasses will be against him this year.—Coatesville Times.

No Transfer For Bryan.

W. J. Bryan makes a frank statement of his resources, and tells how and where he got his money. He is worth $125,000, and made most of it lecturing. Owing to the fact that he is doing so nicely on the platform, it would be hardly right to transfer him to a field where he might make a mess of things both for himself and the rest of us.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Bryan As a Rider.

It is to be presumed that Colonel Bryan could easily pass the "riding test" for admisison to the army service if again required. He has ridden so many hobbies in the past few years that he is getting to be a past master in the art.—Brookville Republican.

Bryan and the Crusher.

Bryan wouldn't run a steam roller over Guffey just now. Oh, no. He will first try to squeeze a $10,000 contribution out of the Pennsylvania boss by gentler means. But if that don't succeed, look out for the crusher again.—Mount Union Times.

Worth More Dead.

They had been married seventeen years.

"If there ever was an utterly worthless travesty of a man, you're it," she told him.

Six months later she was suing the railway company whose train had run over this worthless husband for $25,000.

No Change.

"Do you think the world is growing worse?"

"Dunno as 'tis," responded the old man. "They're tellin' the very fish stories I heard when I was a boy."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Had we not faults of our own we should take less pleasure in complaining of others.—Fenelon.

The Other Great Man.

Dr. Russell Cool of California happened to suppress an epidemic of measles while on a vacation trip to Tahiti, and Chief Oreaori gratefully invited him to a banquet in his primitive palace. The south sea potentate and his white guest sat amiably on the floor and dined off roast pig and other native delicacies served on broad leaves and eaten with the fingers. After dinner host and guest adjourned to seats outside the palace, lit long, fat, black cigars and gazed out over the moonlit Pacific. In the eyes of Chief Oreaori, Robert Louis Stevenson, who did so much to improve the condition of the south sea islanders, was the greatest white man that ever lived. The chief related to Dr. Cool many incidents to illustrate Stevenson's kindliness, then asked a score of questions about the health of Stevenson's widow and of his stepchildren. When the last question had been answered there followed a long period of silence. The two friends puffed slowly at their cigars and luxuriously regarded the radiant tropic moonlight glowing upon rustling palm fronds and the silvery ocean. Then Oreaori turned to the doctor and demanded, "Now tell me about John L. Sullivan!"—Harper's Weekly.

Freezing Flesh.

It is a curious fact that, although dwellers in northern climes must have known for ages that a low temperature preserves flesh from putrefaction, it never seems to have struck any one that this natural fact could be turned to artificial advantage until Lord Bacon stuffed the historic chicken with snow and thereby caught a chill which killed him. It is perhaps even more curious that an experiment resulting in the death of one of the most eminent men in the world should not have called any attention to an already well known principle which might have been readily turned to great advantage. As a matter of fact, it was not until the year 1875, 249 years after Lord Bacon's fatal experiment, that freezing was practically employed as a method of preserving flesh. This was the commencement of the frozen meat trade between America and England. Four years later a dry air refrigerator was perfected.

He Asked.

He had been courting a girl for a long time. It happened on Sunday night after church. They were sitting on the sofa, and she looked with ineffable tenderness into his noble blue eyes.

"Tom," she murmured, with a tremor in her voice, "didn't you tell me once you would be willing to do any act of heroism for my sake?"

"Yes, Mary, and I gladly reiterate that statement now," he replied in confident tones.

"Well, Tom, I want you to do something really heroic for me."

"Speak, darling! What is it?"

"Ask me to be your wife. We've been fooling long enough."

Boys and Girls of Arabia.

A traveler in Arabia who passed a year among the people tells that he did not see a single doll in the hands of a girl nor observe one playing at "keeping house" in any way. Neither did the traveler notice an Arabian boy playing at ball or marbles.

Speaking with a grave sheik on the subject, the latter said to the stranger, "You must be queer people in the west to let your young folks get their hands dirtied in sport!"

The Arabian lads, it seems, walk about trying to look like little men as much as they can when not engaged in acts of duty or in learning essential things.

His Harmless Candidate.

A Georgia farmer posted this sign on his front gate:

"Candidates Will Pass On. No Time to Talk to 'Em."

One morning his little boy shouted from the garden walk:

"There's one o' them canderdates here, and he says he'll come in anyhow!"

The man looked toward the gate and said:

"Let him in. There's no harm in him. I know him. He's been runnin' ever since the war, jest to be a-runnin'. It runs in his blood, an' he can't help it."—Atlanta Constitution.

"Mem-sahib," asked a young East Indian girl of her English mistress, "why do you wear those sad colors? I don't like them."

"I am in mourning, Lattoo. It is the custom of English ladies."

"But black is the color of night, mem-sahib, and yet you believe that when you die you go to heaven at once. Then why not be glad for your friends who die and wear colors such as we see in birds and flowers and falling water when the sun shines? God doesn't make your colors. Ah, well, Christians are strange people!"—From "The Indian Alps."

A Woman's Country.

The Frenchwoman may not be so classical in form or outline as many of England's beautiful women, but she has undoubtedly the gift of charm, and by virtue of this elusive, tantalizing quality she has for centuries bewitched and enthralled all the men of her country. France today is the most woman ridden country and also the most peaceful, prosperous and contented. The women rule by charm.—Stormy Petrel.

The Old Master.

Mistress (to new servant)—I must impress upon you, when you go to the dining room, not to try to get the dirt off the 'Old Master' with a wet rag but use a dry, soft cloth only. Servant—Mercy on us, marm; be I to wash the master?—London Tatler.

EDITORIAL.

EDUCATION BY HAZING.

It has remained for the upper classmen of the Amherst college to point out educative advantages of hazing. Hitherto when collegiate authorities have set out to abolish the custom within their jurisdiction the hazers have simply sought to conceal their identity without attempting to defend their actions. But Amherst seniors, juniors and sophmores believe the faculty is making a serious mistake in trying to do away with hazing. They proceed upon the principle that "hazing does the freshmen good." According to their view, the average freshman's manner are in keeping with his titular classification. In short, he is "fresh." Nothing but a severe course of sprouts will effect his reformation. The upper classmen say they have all been through the mill and that the process has weeded out the chaff from the good.

The Amherst faculty has wisely over-ruled the upper classmen and declared that hereafter hazing will be punishable by explusion. While hazing often takes a comparatively harmless form, it is difficult to perceive wherein it is ever educative. The duty or disciplining freshmen does not properly devolve upon their college companions. The freshmen whose head is held under a pump while he is forcibly shampooed, or who is rolled down a steep hill in a barrel, can hardly be considered to have received a valuable lesson in etquet. Nor is it easy to perceive how the aims of higher education are served by forcing neophytes to drink large quantities of milk, seasoned liberally with salt. There will always be more or less hazing, even with the threat of explusion hanging over its participants, but it is ridiculous to attempt to attach any serious purpose to the doubtful pastime.

WANTED—COMPETENT BOYS.

Last Sunday's New York Sun contained an interesting article on the difficulty of getting good efficient boys in various services. The demand for such is far greater than the supply.

The writer states that the great majority of boys are either lazy or lack ambition. They long for places giving relatively short hours good pay and little work. They shun occupations where they must begin at the bottom and work themselves up to the top notch. They do not like discipline or attention to duty. They hate a place where they are under the eye of a foreman and cannot loaf and shirk. To learn a trade is too irksome for them.

In consequence of this, the willing ambitious and reliable lad is the exception and the inefficient boy is in the majority. If the latter gets a place he is soon discharged for all kinds of faults, from laziness to actual dishonesty. Much of this condition, if not all of it, the writer blames on the mothers, the lack of home training and poor school discipline. Speaking on this point, he says:

There has been a great change of late in the type of boy who is willing to begin his business life in a department store. At one time it was not unusual for persons of means to bring in a son of fifteen or so and ask us to make a place for him so that he could learn the business and get a commercial training. Wages was a secondary consideration.

Fathers and mothers of that class seemed to realize that a large retail business house is the very best place to develop individual bent. If a boy has any individual bent to develop, for him to begin at the very foot is the best and quickest way to teach him in life. With the parents I have referred to putting a boy at work was a means to an end, and the boy generally came to work prepared to stick and to learn.

Today the same class of mothers and fathers oftener prefer to place their boys with a bank or some financial concern, irrespective of the boy's tastes. On the other hand most of the boys who do come to us for a job have first in mind the pay they will get, what or how much they will learn being a secondary consideration, and in the majority of cases they, being poor, are encouraged in this by their mothers.

Ministers and Sunday School teachers are all very well but a boy's mother has more influence with him as a rule than a regiment of teachers would have. It's up to the monther, I say, to determine what sort of business man her boy will turn out to be and judging by the boys I come in contact with every day the New York mothers don't deserve any medals. That's a question, by the way; which woman reformers might tackle with advantage.

In many ways the city boy is by far the smarter, but of late years an increasing percentage has developed a talent for sliding in and out of a job with a facility disconcerting to employers and for attaching at the start an undue value to dollars and cents. Offered $3 a week for a starter, with a chance of acquiring valuable business training, and $4 with no chance at all of learning anything in particular, five out of ten boys will choose the $4 job.

But bad, good or indifferent, the assortment of boys of sixteen and under eligible for employment as office or messenger boy in a good class concern is all too small.

Now here is a condition of things for the home and school to think very seriously about. The boy is the product of his environment and training. He is what he is because of his education. Hereditary qualities play a part, of course; but "as the twig is bent the tree inclines."

The world is in need of efficient boys. To the demand of the home and school must reply.

Were not Vaccinated

Almost daily there are reported persons who contracted smallpox at Enola, Cumberland county, after they had left that town for their homes, none of whom were vaccinated. Those who have been vaccinated escape an attack from the disease. What better or more convincing proof of the efficacy of vaccination could be demanded or furnished? Why should the anti-vaccinists refuse to accept such plain evidence of the efficacy of vaccination?

One of the arguments of the anti-vaccinists in denouncing those who seek to protect the people from smallpox is that vaccination causes tetanus. This is an error which only ignorance can indorse. Physicians will testify to the fact that not one case of lockjaw which could be traced to the act of vaccination has ever been recorded. It is possible that if a person's blood is bad from other disease the scratch of a vaccination needle will bring on sores which may develope into tetanus, but the result is due to diseased blood, not to the virus used in vaccination. Any other kind of a scratch would have produced similar results.

Jockey's Tricks.

"There are tricks of two kinds in jockeying," said a jockey, "the legitimate and the illegitimate. Use the first and you'll prosper. Use the last and it's all up.

"Illegitimate tricks are pulling a race and getting left at the post. If you once pull a fast horse and make him lose, you are always afterward an object of suspicion, and ten to one if you ever pull another horse you are done for. But getting yourself left at the post is a big and complex subject, and it is the one trick that a clever jockey can work time and again with safety.

"To cause a rival horse to swerve is an illegitimate trick that often wins your race. You cause the swerving by straightening out your leg so that your heel nearly touches the other horse's nose, or you make a wide slash with your whip so that it nearly touches the other horse's eyes.

"The legitimate tricks are— But why give them away when it has taken all my life to learn them?"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

We Work Too Hard.

Lady Headfort during her American tour said in New York that she approved of international marriages.

"They correct us," she explained. "Our Englishmen work too little, your American men work too much, and the international marriage tends to bring about a happy mean. Your men do work too much, you know," said Lady Headfort. "I have an English friend who attended the funeral of one of your hardest workers, a multimillionaire. My friend's wife said rather bitterly to him at the funeral:

"'How you have missed your opportunities, my love! Place yourself beside Mr. Ritch there. You are both of the same age. You both began life together. Yet you are a poor man, while he died a multimillionaire.'

"'Yes,' said the English husband. 'There Ritch lies, dead of nervous prostration, without one single penny in his pocket, and here I stand, hale and hearty, with a wallet in my coat containing quite a hundred dollars.'"

HASKELL IS NOT THE ONLY BURDEN

Bryan Handicapped by Kerr's Corporation Connections.

GUFFEY MEN NOW LAUGHING

With the Oklahoma Steam Roller Machinist in Disrepute and the New National Committeeman From This State Uncovered, the Pittsburg Colonel Seems to Have Had His Revenge.

[Special Correspondence.]

New York, Oct. 6.

Pennsylvanians, both Republicans and Democrats, will be interested in disclosures made by a correspondent of the New York Sun regarding the corporation connections of Bryan's intimate friend, James Kerr, of Clearfield, Pa., whom he catapaulted into the Democratic national committee at Denver after the Haskell steam roller, at Bryan's direction, had crushed out Colonel James M. Guffey, who had not only subscribed many thousands of dollars to Bryan's campaign funds, but also furnished free of cost the stained glass windows which adorn the Bryan household at Lincoln.

Haskell, owing to the expansion of his Standard Oil connections, has had to retire from the treasurership of the Democratic national committee.

But Kerr still holds on.

Kerr and Corporations.

Here is what a New York Sun correspondent has just written about Mr. Kerr:

"To the accompaniment of the blare of trumpets and the waving of many flags, Colonel James M. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, was convicted at Denver of the unpardonable sin of being a corporation man, and the spotless James Kerr was installed in his place as Democratic national committeeman from the Keystone state. Never mind the fact that Colonel Guffey was the selection by a large majority of the properly constituted delegation of Democrats of his state. The state is hopelessly for Taft anyway, and therefore personal animosities must be gratified while the ancient bluff of 'peepul' is carried out.

"The Peerless Leader therefore smiled expansively and the faithful cohorts chortled for joy when the wicked Mr. Guffey was exiled and that well-known corporation hater, 'free from spot or blemish or any such thing,' was presented faultless before the representatives of the downtrodden masses!

"But what is this we find? Upon taking up the Directory of Directors for the year 1907-08—a satanic roll of malefactors, appropriately bound in red—we discover on page 347 the following entry:

A Pretty Good List.

"'Kerr, James, president and director Beech Creek Coal & Coke company, 17 Battery place.

"'American Union Telephone company, Harrisburg, Pa., director.

"'Automatic Coaling & Weighing Barge company, of Delaware, president and director.

"'Beech Creek Railroad company, director.

"'Cheat Creek Railroad company, director.

"'Clearfield Manufacturing company, president and director.

"'Clearfield Trust company, director.

"'Commonwealth Coal & Coke company, president and director.

"'Farmers' bank, of Indiana, Pa., director.

"'First National bank, Patton, Pa., director.

"'Hooverhurst & Southwestern railroad, president and director.

"'Iroquois China company, president and director.

"'National Corporation Securities company, president and director.

"'New York Weighing Barge & Coaling company, president and director.

"'North River Coal & Wharf company, president and director.

"'O'Gara Coal company, director.

"'Pennsylvania, Beech Creek & Eastern Coal company, president and director.

"'Pennsylvania Coal & Coke company, director.

"'Pennsylvania Construction & Investment company, president and director.

"'Philadelphia Record, director.

"'Potts Run Land company, president and director.'

Looking Backward.

"As the late Hon. Henry Clay Barnabee was wont feelingly to remark: 'Another fond hope shattered!'

"Can this exalted apostle of civic righteousness be the same James Kerr who for years has shared with that other disinterested Democrat and one time candidate for governor of New York, the Hon. John B. Stanchfield, the distinction—represensible but remunerative—of safeguarding the interests of the New York Central in the regions which lie between Geneva on the north and Williamsport on the south? Can this same Mr. Kerr be the immaculate defender of the 'peepul's' rights who in the organization of the New York Central's coal corporation, the 'Beech Creek Coal & Coke company,' sat in his office and 'created wealth' by drawing up an artistic collection of common stock certificates which were not heavily weighed down by mere physical assets as equity therefor?

"Alas! Alas! How are the mighty fallen and the weapons of war perished! IT IS TO LAUGH."

Taft to Farmers.

Pennsylvania farmers will be interested in the speeches being made by Judge Taft in the west, especially his references to the beneficial results of the enforcement of the Republican policy of a protective tariff.

At Dodge City a sign had been placed on a grain elevator which read: "Wheat, 1908, 92 cents, Republican rule; wheat, 55 cents, Democratic rule."

Taking notice of the sign, Mr. Taft said to his large audience:

"I have statistics a little more complete than that. The average price of corn in Kansas in '96, after four years of Democratic rule, was 18 cents per bushel. Now it is more than 44 cents per bushel. This Republican price of 44 cents for corn in Kansas gave to the farmers of Kansas for their corn crop of 1907 more than $40,000,000 in excess of what they would have received if they had sold at the Democratic price of 18 cents.

"With respect to wheat, in which I think this community is rather more interested than corn, the average price of wheat in Kansas for the four Democratic years was 49 cents per bushel. At present it is over 92 cents per bushel, and if your present wheat crop had been sold at Democratic prices it would have left you $21,000,000 less than you have today.

"For oats the Democratic price was 16 cents; for barley, 22 cents, and for potatoes, 27 cents, and for hay, $2.70 a ton. The Republican prices gave to the farmers of Kansas for the crop of oats, barley, potatoes and hay in 1907 over $18,000,000 in excess of what they would have received if they had sold those crops at the Democratic prices which prevailed all over Kansas in 1896, after the Democrats had run the government for four years.

Tariff Helped Farmer.

"You have increased the value of your horses over what you had in 1896 from about $16,000,000 to $96,000,000.

"The same is true of other stock.

"Of course the argument is that this was not due to Democratic rule, but as a matter of fact, in Harrison's administration you had no such prices. You had them in Cleveland's administration, after the Gorman-Wilson tariff bill, and just as soon as the Republicans came in again and passed the Dingley bill, the prices began to rise. You had a good market and you have been prosperous ever since.

"I ask in heaven's name how sensible people can take the power out of the hands of the party that has made such prosperity possible and put it in the hands of a party whose record is what I have given."

Pennsylvania farmers are keenly interested in this tariff agitation. The tobacco growers of Lancaster county all appreciate the fact that without the protection which two representatives in the United States senate give them in that body and a large majority of Republican representatives in the house command, they would be seriously handicapped.

The iron, coal, manufacturing and other important interests of the Keystone state would be similarly affected by any serious disturbance of present tariff conditions.

All admit that there must be tariff revision, but Pennsylvanians demand that this service shall be done by Republican protectionists—not Democratic free traders.

Phonograph, Too, Is Silent.

None of the Bryan phonograph records has the speeches advocating free silver and immediate government ownership of the railways, nor have they the "great commoner's" attacks on Roger Sullivan, Colonels Watterson and Guffey. These omissions tell an important story.—Brookville Republican.

Why Does He Kick?

As Mr. Bryan made all his money under Republican administration, what is he really kicking about, anyway?—Fulton Republican.

They're All Like This.

A young and pretty schoolteacher once asked her class for an original definition of the word "wife."

"A wife is a rib," said one little girl.

"Wives are guiding stars," said another.

"A comforter," said a third.

"An inspiration," said a fourth.

Altogether the definitions were rather prosy and commonplace, but finally a child of eleven, smiling archly, said:

"A wife is a person for a man to find fault with when things go wrong."

"Good!" cried the pretty teacher, laughing. "Good! That is the best definition of all, the best, the truest!"

But that afternoon on the way home from school the little girl whose definition had so pleased tripped demurely up to the teacher and said:

"Are you going to marry that tall, handsome young man I see you with nearly every night?"

"Yes," said the teacher.

"Well, then, if my definition of a wife was true"—

"Ah, but, dear, with us nothing will ever go wrong. He says so himself."

Nice, Easy Job.

The following advertisement recently appeared in an English newspaper: "Man required for demonstration purpose an old English rack (star chamber pattern); would have to be slightly stretched to show how rack worked; man should be short to start with."

PE-RU-NA RECEIVES PRAISE

headache, I had backache or a pain somewhere and really life was not worth the effort I made to keep going.

"A good friend advised me to use Peruna and I was glad to try anything, and I am very pleased to say that six bottles made a new woman of me and I have no more pains and life looks bright again."

There are a great many phases of woman's ailments that require the assistance of the surgeon.

But by far the greatest number of such cases are amenable to correct medicinal treatment.

A vast multitude of women have been relieved from the ailments peculiar to their sex through the use of Peruna as prescribed by Dr. Hartman.

He receives many letters from all parts of the country relating to subjects of vital interest to womankind.

Of the vast multitude of women Dr. Hartman treats annually, only a small per cent. of them consider it necessary to write to the Doctor at all.

While it is not affirmed that Peruna will relieve every case of this kind, it is certainly the part of wisdom for every woman so afflicted to give Peruna a fair trial.

Mrs. Joseph Lacelle, 124 Bronson St., Ottawa, East, Ontario, Canada, writes:

"I suffered with backache and headache for over nine months and nothing relieved me until I took Peruna. This medicine is by far better than any other medicine for these troubles. A few bottles relieved me of my miserable, half-dead, half-alive condition.

"I am now in good health, have neither ache nor pain, nor have I had any for the past year. If every suffering woman would take Peruna, they would soon know its value and never be without it."

Mrs. M. Kliner, 2948 E. 36th St., S. E., Cleveland, Ohio, writes:

"I am enjoying good health since taking your medicine. I had suffered for a good many years previous to taking Peruna, and ever since I can say that I do not know what headache or neuralgia is. I can most assuredly say that anybody afflicted with catarrh in any form can be cured by taking Peruna."

ANDREWS PUTS LIFE IN THE FIGHT

Pennsylvania Republicans Busy All Along the Line.

MANY MEETINGS SCHEDULED

Capital and Labor Concerned Over the Situation and Will Co-operate to Bring About the Election of Taft and the Full Ticket of His Party, Locally, and in the State and Nation.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.

There have been very busy times about the Republican state headquarters during the last week.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the state committee, has been almost overwhelmed with callers from the different counties, eager to contribute towards the success of the ticket. He has been in touch with the county chairman, and his reports all indicate that there will be a very satisfactory outcome of the campaign.

He has arranged for a number of speakers of national prominence to come into Pennsylvania during the closing days of the canvass, and there is no doubt that there will be an enthusiastic wind-up of the campaign.

Vice President Fairbanks, Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury; Representative Nicholas Longworth, the president's son-in-law; Senator Julius Caesar Burrows, of Michigan; John M. Thurston and other prominent speakers have accepted invitations to deliver political addresses in this state.

A large number of Pennsylvania orators will also be on the stump from this week until election day.

Mr. Shaw will deliver four speeches. With Lieutenant Governor Robert S. Murphy, he is scheduled to address a political rally at Johnstown tonight. His other engagements have not yet been arranged. Mr. Shaw is one of the most effective speakers in the country. For many years he has been in demand for service on the stump in every campaign. He will attack the fallacies of Bryanism and emphasize the dangers of the bank guaranty system which Mr. Bryan is advocating.

Representative Longworth and Senator Burrows are booked to address a meeting in Pittsburg this evening. Mr. Longworth's speeches in this campaign have attracted much attention, and he has received invitations to speak in every state. Senator Burrows is a veteran campaigner and eloquent speaker. Vice President Fairbanks will make two speeches at points to be selected later.

Republican Meetings Planned.

Henry F. Walton, chief of the speakers' bureau of the state committee, has announced these assignments of speakers:

October 6.—Middlesburg, Snyder county, James M. Yeager, of Scranton; Clarence F. Huth, of Shamokin.

October 6—Roulette, Potter county, D. E. Murray, of Perry county.

October 7—Austin, Potter county, D. E. Murray, of Perry county.

October 8 — Titusville, Crawford county, Congressman James Francis Burke, of Pittsburg; W. I. Swope, of Clearfield.

October 8—Erie, Erie county, Major Alexander McDowell, of Sharon; Congressman Arthur L. Bates, of Meadville.

October 9—Galeton, Potter county, D. E. Murray, of Perry county.

October 9—Shingle House, Potter county, D. E. Murray, of Perry county.

October 12—Kane, McKean county, Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia.

October 13 — Smethport, McKean county, Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia.

October 14 — Bradford, McKean county, Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia.

October 15—Pittsburg, Allegheny county, Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart.

October 16 — Allentown, Lehigh county, Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart.

October 27—Altoona, Blair county, Congressman James Francis Burke, of Pittsburg.

A Question of Wages.

In the mail of Colonel Andrews a few days ago was a letter from an officer of the National Roller Bearing company, of Philadelphia, who stated that a notice had been posted in the factory to the effect that the 10 per cent reduction which had been made in the wages of the employes of that corporation in the midst of the panic of last year, would be restored to all employes in November if Taft shall be elected president.

The increase would amount to $60,000 a year.

In commenting upon this announcement the editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer said:

"We have not the slightest doubt that should Mr. Bryan run across that notice he would tell his hearers that bribery had been resorted to; that here was an attempt to influence the workingmen. But we doubt very much if his hearers would agree with him.

"It is prosperity, the pursuit of happiness and liberty that everybody seeks. It is good wages that the workingman is after. The government, the policy that gives him good wages, is the government, the policy that he believes in and supports—if he knows where his interests lie.

"Back under the Cleveland administration the country was plunged into a depression that closed the mills and produced the free soup kitchens. Mr. Bryan was a member of the Democratic house that insisted upon a tariff bill that brought disaster. Today he is a candidate for president and is standing upon a platform which, if enacted into law, would again throw the country into a commercial panic and again close the mills and manufactories.

"The company above mentioned merely speaks for every other manufacturing concern in the country. It represents the existing sentiment among employers of labor. They have not forgotten. They fully understand what would be the result should Mr. Bryan be elected. They are waiting for the decision of the people. A Republican victory means the restoration of wages and the mills running at full time. A Democratic victory means uncertainty and depression.

"It is for the voters of the nation to determine what they will do.

"It is for them to make the choice between certainty and uncertainty—between Taft and Bryan."

The Renewal a Strain.

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

A pleasing, good, high grade, truly flavored, amber colared cup of coffee can be had—and without the real Coffee danger, or damage to health—by simply using Dr. Shoop's new substitute, called "Health Coffee". Pure, wholesome, toasted cereals, malt, nuts, etc. make Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee both healthful and satisfying. No 20 to 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute" says Dr. Shoop. If served as coffee, it's taste will even trick an expert. Test it and see. Sold by Zeller and Son.

If you are a sufferer from piles, Man-Zan Pile Remedy will bring relief with first application. Guaranteed. Price 50c. Sold by C. M. Parrish.

"The blood is the life." Science has never gone beyond that simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and gives it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not all the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgment are effected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. No one can be well balanced in mind and body whose blood is impure. No one can have a wholesome and pure life unless the blood is pure. Foul blood can be made pure by the use of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, when the blood is pure, body and brain are alike healthy and life becomes a daily happiness.

Standing out in bold relief, all along and a conspicuous example of open frank and honest dealing with sick and afflicted, Dr Pierce prints on the bottle wrapper in plain English a full list of the ingredients. Therefore not a "patent medicine," but a medicine of known composition.

Are You Sick?

Much sickness is due to a weak nervous system. Yours may be. If it is, you cannot get well until you restore nerve strength Your nervous system is nature's power house; the organs of your body get their power from it. If the power is not there, the action of the organs is weak, and disease (sickness) follows. Dr. Miles' Nervine cures the sick because it soothes the irritated and tired nerves and gives the system a chance to recuperate. Try it, and see if you do not quickly feel its beneficial effect.

"I was given up to die by a leading doctor. Got one of Dr. Miles books and found that Dr. Miles' Nervine fit my case. From the very first dose I took I got better. I am better now than I have been for years, and do all my own work on the farm. That's what Dr. Miles' Nervine has done for me, and I am glad to recommend it to others."

WOMAN BOUND AND GAGGED

Robbers Commit Daring Crime at Bradford Co. Home

GRAY WAS HUNTING

During His Absence Wife Was Bound and the House Ransacked for Money and Valuables

CHILDREN FOUND THEIR MOTHER

Friday's Towanda Review tells of a daring robbery that was committed on Oak Hill, two miles west of Ulster, Bradford county, yesterday morning. Mrs. David Gray, aged about 45 years, was bound and gagged in her own home, the house ransacked and about $75 taken.

David Gray is one of Ulster township's most progressive and prominent farmers. He lives on what is known as Oak Hill, about two miles west of Ulster village.

Thursday morning Mr Gray shouldered his gun and started to the woods to take advantage of the opening of the season, the children were out in a field some distance from the house, gathering chestnuts. Mrs. Gray was busy with her work, when she was startled by the appearance of the strangers, who had unceremoniously entered the house. She was quickly bound and gagged, and left lying on the floor, while the men ransacked the house, securing $75, they left the place as quietly as they entered.

A short time later the children returned from the nutting expedition and found their mother, bound and gagged, lying helpless on the floor. She was liberated and the alarm given but no trace of the robbers cold be found.

Court Sentences

Thursday Judge Orvis imposed the following sentences upon persons who had been tried at this term of court: Joseph Ross, indicted for larceny, sentenced to pay a fine of $1, cost of prosecution, restoration of stolen goods, and to undergo imprisonment in the western penitentiary for one year.

James Reed plead guilty to larceny, sentenced to a fine of $1, cost of prosecution, restoration of the stolen goods, and to undergo imprisonment in the western penitentiary for a period of three years.

Charles Bartly plead guilty to selling liquor without license. Sentence suspended until next term of court and released under bond.

William Sampsel, plead guilty as indicted, and sentenced to pay a fine of $1, cost of prosecution, and to undergo imprisonment in the western penitentiary for 3 years.

Martin Mazzo convicted at last court of taking money from Korotus, sentenced to a fine of $1, cost of prosecution and to undergo imprisonment in jail for six months.

This morning Sheriff Kline, assisted by two deputies, Earl Kline of Bellefonte and Joseph Dunkle of Howard, left for the western penitentiary with Ross, Reed and Sampsell.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PARIS CABBIES.

The War of Words That Comes When They Block Each Other.

There is no more entertaining way to spend an idle hour in Paris than to get into a taxicab and instruct the driver to go along some street where you will be reasonably sure to get into a jam or to bump against another cab. The charm of the experience is, of course, enhanced by your ignorance of what the cabbies say.

Should your driver merely graze the wheels of another cab he will turn on his seat and yell mellifluously at the other driver, who in turn will shout back an assortment of vowels. But the best is a quarrel between two cabbies obstructing each other's way. The conversation, translated as nearly literally as is safe, goes in this wise:

"Sacred name! Why do you?"

"Holly blue! I do not!"

"Stomach on the ground! You have the face of an ox!"

"Blue stomach! Are you in chains?"

"A bas! Name of a dog!"

"Mon Dieu! Name of a pig!"

"Wow (or words to that effect! Name of a name!"

"A thousand deaths! Name of a name of a name!"

Now you begin to expect some doings. While you have not fully understood, you are satisfied that nothing but pistols and knives will wipe out the insults.

Unfortunately about this time the jam is untangled and you are allowed to drive away, but the other driver yells after yours:

"Aha! You are a little piece of brown soap!"

It seems that this expression is the "fighting name" in Paris. Were it not that your cabby owes a duty to you and must convey you to your destination you know by his facial expression that he would climb down and get that other cabby and muss up the city with him.

He contents himself with turning about and making a face in the direction of his enemy and of going through the motion of spitting at him.

Then he says "Yoop!" to the horse, and the war is over.—Chicago Post.

THATCHING.

The Ancient Art in the Low Countries and in England.

Once upon a time two amateur botanists were hunting bog mosses on Exmoor, on the confines of the land of Lorna Doone. About the hour of luncheon they found that their enthusiasm had led them far afield, a good hour and a half from the farmhouse which they had made their temporary headquarters. The only place which yielded promise of food was a shepherd's shack half a mile distant, so thither they went. That the shack, or, rather, its owner, a small, wiry, dark man with curly hair, could offer nothing better than brown bread, which was woefully "elit," or heavy, and raw onions is neither here nor there. The point was that the roof of the shack was artistically thatched with layers of plaited reeds.

"Feyther taught I th' way to do un," explained the shepherd, with an upward jerk of his thumb toward the roof. "An' his feyther taught 'im avore that, an' his feyther avore that, an' back an' back twill nobody can think."

"A hereditary art evidently," said one of the moss hunters to his companion. "But I never saw thatches like these outside of the Low Countries. Safe bet that this fellow is of Dutch descent." Then he said to the man of Devon, "And what is your name, may I ask?"

"Well," replied the shepherd, "most volk call I Van, but ma right name be Henry Van Torp. They do say that ma gurt-grandfeyther were a-vitin' against England an' were took prisoner an' married a Devon girl an' settled 'ereabout"—he indicated the southward sweep of the moor—"but these be a lot of voolish tales to ma thinkin'."—Craftsman.

His Last Question.

The counsel for the opposition had been bullying the witness for an hour or more when he finally asked:

"Is it true that there are traces of insanity in your family?"

"It would be folly to deny it," replied the witness. "My great-grandfather, who was studying for the ministry, gave it up to become a lawyer."

His Case.

Mrs. Spenders—Oh, John, I saw a sign in Bargain & Co.'s window today that reminded me of what I am most in—

Mr. Spenders—(interrupting hastily)—I, too, saw a sign in their window that reminded me of what I am. It read, "Reduced to 49 cents."—New York Journal.

OPEN SECRETS.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken the many users of his medicines into his full confidence. Thus too he has absolutely and completely removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them REMEDIES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

Dr Pierce's medicines are now in a class all by themselves—being absolutely and in every sense Non-secret.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this booklet it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, and with the use of specially designed chemical apparatus, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the system and bringing about a perfect state of health.

The exact properties of the several ingredients used in these medicines, as well as the working formula and peculiar processes, apparatus and appliances employed in their manufacture, are withheld from publicity that Dr. Pierce's proprietary rights may not be infringed and trespassed upon by unprincipled imitators and those who may be piratically inclined.

Dr. John Fyfe, of Saugatuck, Conn., Editor of the Department of Therapeutics in THE ECLECTIC REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) one of the chief ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription: "A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator and always favors a condition which makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system, cannot fail to be of great usefulness and of the utmost importance to the general practitioner of medicine."

"Helonias more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent."

"The following are among the leading indications for Helonias: Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys: menorrhagia, ("flooding") due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhea, arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and an anemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensation in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is rich in all the medical properties of Unicorn root, or Helonias.

The Horse's Power of Smell.

The horse will leave musty hay untouched in his bin, however hungry. He will not drink of water objectionable to his questioning sniff or from a bucket which some odor makes offensive, however thirsty. His intelligent nostril will widen, quiver and query over the daintiest bit offered by the fairest of hands, with coaxings that would make a mortal shut his eyes and swallow a nauseous mouthful at a gulp. A mare is never satisfied by either sight or whinny that her colt is really her own until she has a certain nasal certificate to the fact. A blind horse, now living, will not allow the approach of any stranger without showing signs of anger not safely to be disregarded. The distinction is evidently made by his sense of smell and at a considerable distance. Blind horses, as a rule, will gallop wildly about a pasture without striking the surrounding fence. The sense of smell informs them of its proximity.—Horse and Stable.

Between Supper and Breakfast.

Many persons, says a well known doctor, though not actually sick, keep below par in strength and general tone, and he is of the opinion that fasting during the long interval between supper and breakfast, and especially the complete emptiness of the stomach during sleep, adds greatly to the amount of emaciation, sleeplessness and general weakness we so often meet. It is logical to believe that the supply of nourishment should be somewhat continuous, especially in those who are below par, if we would counteract their emaciation and lower degree of vitality, and as bodily exer-

Caught the General.

One of the regular army officers tells a story of how the old stringent army regulations once went against General Scott. One wet afternoon that soldier was caught in the rain in Washington. He was in full uniform and was well known, so, no cab being near, he borrowed an umbrella. Arriving at his hotel, an underofficer approached him and calmly remarked:

"General, you will consider yourself under arrest for eight days for carrying an umbrella while in full uniform."

The King's Cock Crower.

In the good old time there was an English court official known as the king's cock crower. It seems a strange office. Why did the king require a cock crower, and why could not the common barn door variety serve his majesty's purpose? The reason, as you shall see, was that the barn door variety cannot be depended upon for times and hours, and he has never been persuaded to observe Lent. Now, this was a pious custom and a religious duty. All through Lent the king's cock crower crowed instead of calling the hours of the night in the palace. He began on Ash Wednesday, when he entered the hall in which the king's supper was served, and then crowed the hour in the presence of the royal party. The meaning of the custom is obvious. It was only one of the many ways in which the history of the Christian religion was brought home to the minds of people before the reading of the gospel in the vernacular. The office was continued down to the year 1822.—London Queen.

Naturalized.

An Italian went to the civil service commissioners' rooms to be examined for a laborer's position. He answered most of the questions correctly. Finally they asked him if he had ever been naturalized. He seemed a bit puzzled, but at last his face lighted up. "Ah, I know whata you mean. Scratcha de arm. Yes, lasta week."

Then He Stole.

Prudent Swain—If I were to steal a kiss, would it scare you so that you would scream? Timid Maiden—I couldn't. Fright always makes me dumb.

Driven From Home.

"Did you hear that the daughter of that rich man in the next street had been driven from home?"

"No! When did it happen?"

"Just after she got into the carriage."

No Wonder.

Jack—Yes, poor John may have had his faults, but his heart was on the right side.

Wagge—Is it possible? No wonder he died.

[illegible] symptom of, and not [illegible] We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn [illegible] as real diseases, yet they are symptoms of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

NUMBER ONE.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Philadelphia and Allegheny counties, and to give the General Assembly power to establish a separate court in Philadelphia county, with criminal and miscellaneous jurisdiction.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met, That the following amendments to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same are hereby, proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section six of article five be amended by striking out the said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas, shall be vested in one court of common pleas in each of said counties, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of each of the said courts shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in each of said courts may be, by law, increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first Monday of January succeeding its adoption.

Section 2. That article five, section eight, be amended by making an addition thereto so that the same shall read as follows:

Section 8. The said courts in the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny respectively shall, from time to time, in turn, detail one or more of their judges to hold the courts of oyer and terminer and the courts of quarter sessions of the peace of said counties, in such manner as may be directed by law: Provided, That in the county of Philadelphia the General Assembly shall have power to establish a separate court, consisting of not more than four judges, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases and in such other matters as may be provided by law.

NUMBER TWO.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, allowing counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, or other municipal or incorporated districts, to increase their indebtedness.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That section eight, article nine, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, reading as follows:—

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein; nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," be amended, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article of said Constitution, so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed ten per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein; nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, in such manner as shall be provided by law.

NUMBER THREE.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing amendments to sections eight and twenty-one of article four, sections eleven and twelve of article five, sections two, three, and fourteen of article eight, section one of article twelve, and sections two and seven of article fourteen, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and providing a schedule for carrying the amendments into effect.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following are proposed as amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment One—To Article Four, Section Eight.

Section 2. Amend section eight of article four of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

"He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office at the next general election, unless the vacancy shall happen within three calendar months immediately preceding such election, in which case the election for said office shall be held at the second succeeding general election. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal," so as to read as follows:—

He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office on the next election day appropriate to such office, according to the provisions of this Constitution, unless the vacancy shall happen within two calendar months immediately preceding such election day, in which case the election for said office shall be held on the second succeeding election day appropriate to such office. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal.

Amendment Two—To Article Four, Section Twenty-one.

Section 3. Amend section twenty-one of article four, which reads as follows:—

"The term of the Secretary of Internal Affairs shall be four years; of the Auditor General three years; and of the State Treasurer two years. These officers shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms," so as to read:—

The terms of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, the Auditor General, and the State Treasurer shall each be four years; and they shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections; but a State Treasurer, elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, shall serve for three years, and his successors shall be elected at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and in every fourth year thereafter. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms.

Amendment Three—To Article Five, Section Eleven.

Section 4. Amend section eleven of article five, which reads as follows:—

"Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, justices of the peace or aldermen shall be elected in the several wards, districts, boroughs and townships at the time of the election of constables, by the qualified electors thereof, in such manner as shall be directed by law, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for a term of five years. No township, ward, district or borough shall elect more than two justices of the peace or aldermen without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors within such township, ward or borough; no person shall be elected to such office unless he shall have resided within the township, borough, ward or district for one year next preceding his election. In cities containing over fifty thousand inhabitants, not more than one alderman shall be elected in each ward or district," so as to read:—

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, justices of the peace or aldermen shall be elected in the several wards, districts, boroughs or townships, by the qualified electors thereof, at the municipal election, in such manner as shall be directed by law, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for a term of six years. No township, ward, district or borough shall elect more than two justices of the peace or aldermen without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors within such township, ward or borough; no person shall be elected to such office unless he shall have resided within the township, borough, ward or district for one year next preceding his election. In cities containing over fifty thousand inhabitants, not more than one alderman shall be elected in each ward or district.

Amendment Four—To Article Five, Section Twelve.

Section 5. Amend section twelve of article five of the Constitution, which reads as follows:—

"In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be five years, and they shall be elected on general ticket by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected when more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished," so as to read as follows:—

In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general ticket at the municipal election, by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected when more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished.

Amendment Five—To Article Eight, Section Two.

Section 6. Amend section two of article eight, which reads as follows:—

"The general election shall be held annually on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto," so as to read:—

The general election shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each even-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto: Provided, That such election shall always be held in an even-numbered year.

Amendment Six—To Article Eight, Section Three.

Section 7. Amend section three of article eight, which reads as follows:—

"All elections for city, ward, borough and township officers, for regular terms of service, shall be held on the third Tuesday of February," so as to read:—

All judges elected by the electors of the State at large may be elected at either a general or municipal election, as circumstances may require. All elections for judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and for county, city, ward, borough, and township officers, for regular terms of service, shall be held on the municipal election day; namely, the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each odd-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto: Provided, That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year.

Amendment Seven—To Article Eight, Section Fourteen.

Section 8. Amend section fourteen of article eight, which reads as follows:—

"District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service," so as to read:—

District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen biennially, by the citizens at the municipal election; but the General Assembly may require said boards to be appointed in such manner as it may by law provide. Laws regulating the appointment of said boards may be enacted to apply to cities only: Provided, That such laws be uniform for cities of the same class. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record, or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service.

Amendment Eight—To Article Twelve, Section One.

Section 9. Amend section one, article twelve, which reads as follows:—

"All officers, whose selection is not provided for in this Constitution, shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law," so as to read:—

All officers, whose selection is not provided for in this Constitution, shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law: Provided, That elections of State officers shall be held on a general election day, and elections of local officers shall be held on a municipal election day, except when, in either case, special elections may be required to fill unexpired terms.

Amendment Nine—To Article Fourteen, Section Two.

Section 10. Amend section two of article fourteen, which reads as follows:—

"County officers shall be elected at the general elections and shall hold their offices for the term of three years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for, shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law," so as to read:—

County officers shall be elected at the municipal elections and shall hold their offices for the term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for, shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law.

Amendment Ten—To Article Fourteen, Section Seven.

Section 11. Amend section seven, article fourteen, which reads as follows:—

"Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and every third year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled, by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled," so as to read:—

Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven and every fourth year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled, by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled.

Schedule for the Amendments.

Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared, that—

In the case of officers elected by the people, all terms of office fixed by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always be for an even number of years.

The above extension of official terms shall not affect officers elected at the general election of one thousand nine hundred and eight; nor any city, ward, borough, township, or election division officers, whose terms of office, under existing law, end in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February, as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and also all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven. All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments or this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen. All justices of the peace, magistrates, and aldermen, chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen. After the year nineteen hundred and ten, and until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, all terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December in an odd-numbered year.

All city, ward, borough, and township officers holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of December of that year.

All judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and also all county officers, holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

A HINDOO'S TOILET.

Curious Morning Scene In an East Indian Compound.

All over the compound, from verandas and "go-downs," forms are seen rising from sleep, each one "wrapping the drapery of his couch about him," with no idea in doing so of conforming to any standards urged upon the attention of the race by Mr. Bryant, but for the simpler if less poetic reason that these draperies constitute his bedding by night and his nether garment by day. But do not make the mistake of thinking that because the requirements of the Hindoo's costume are scanty his toilet is therefore a perfunctory matter. Follow him to the well. The chances are that you will never drink water again, but you will obtain knowledge. On the brink of that great yawning hole in the ground known as the compound well, whose sides are of stone and whose steps lead you down to the water's edge, behold the "males" of the compound. Divested of the draperies already referred to and in attitudes ranging all the way from the pose of the "Disk Thrower" to that of the most resolute squatter upon a western claim, they are lined up in a row from the top of the steps to the bottom. In the hand of each is a chatty, and one and all are engaged in the offices of the morning bath. And their tub is the well. The brimming chatties are passed up and the empty ones down, legs are curried, feet are scoured, teeth are polished with charcoal and stick, throats are gargled, noses trumpeted, and, in short, the whole man receives such a washing and splashing, such a rubbing and scrubbing, such a polishing and polishing, as leaves nothing to be desired except in connection with the well. This latter consideration, however, is one that does not disturb the Hindoo, who, priding himself upon being externally the cleanest platter in the universe, devotes but little thought to the inside of the dish.

His ablutions and those of his colleagues concluded, he fills his chatty once more from the pure fountain below, lifts it high in the air, throws his head back and with unerring aim pours the crystal libation in one long, steady stream down his open throat, skillfully poised to receive and conduct it to his germ proof interior. This done, his draperies are resumed, and he departs to his work.

Suddenly, as out of a catapult, the sun leaps up from behind the eastern hills, and day is at hand.—Mary Anabel Chamberlain in Atlantic.

They're All Like This.

A young and pretty schoolteacher once asked her class for an original definition of the word "wife."

"A wife is a rib," said one little girl.

"Wives are guiding stars," said another.

"A comforter," said a third.

"An inspiration," said a fourth.

Altogether the definitions were rather prosy and commonplace, but finally a child of eleven, smiling archly, said:

"A wife is a person for a man to find fault with when things go wrong."

"Good!" cried the pretty teacher, laughing. "Good! That is the best definition of all, the best, the truest!"

But that afternoon on the way home from school the little girl whose definition had so pleased tripped demurely up to the teacher and said:

"Are you going to marry that tall, handsome young man I see you with nearly every night?"

"Yes," said the teacher.

"Well, then, if my definition of a wife was true"—

"Ah, but, dear, with us nothing will ever go wrong. He says so himself."

The Sea Serpent Myth.

It is possible, even probable, that the sea serpent myth started in all good faith. In the southern seas grow the gigantic algae, the largest of which measure from 400 to 600 feet in length. These when rolled on the beach form enormous cables several hundred feet long and as thick as a good sized tree trunk. Such cables washed out to sea by storms may very easily have given rise to the farfamed but yet undiscovered sea serpent.—New York American.

Explanations in Order.

A man whose wife was extremely jealous planned a pleasant surprise for her in the form of a trip to New York to see "The Merry Widow" and wrote a friend in the city to let him know the earliest date for which he could secure seats. The next day when he was away from home the following telegram was delivered there, addressed to him, but opened by his wife:

"Nothing doing with the widow until the 10th. Will that suit you?"

Explanations were demanded.

As to a Courtship.

"He's telling everybody that she is his first love."

"And she?"

"She is confiding to a select few that he is her last chance."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—We are in receipt of the annual report of the Pennsylvania State College for the year ending June 30, 1907.

—At the recent Free Methodist conference Rev. J. L. Collins was appointed to Bellefonte. He will move here in a few days.

—The burgess of Philipsburg has received a communication from a large corporation wanting to establish a canning factory there.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has changed the name of the upper portion of Williamsport known as Newberry to West Williamsport.

—William Overton a nephew of Rev. Edward Overton, delivered a very interesting address on "Wisdom" at Coleville Sunday afternoon.

—George Spangler, father of N. B. Spangler of this place, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Crawford at Centre Hall Friday morning.

—A Williamsport paper says the water no longer shoots the schute at the dam in that place. The water never ceases shooting the dam schute here.

—Captain and Mrs. Heather of the Salvation Army on Wednesday moved from their former home on Spring street to the Hayes dwelling on Decatur street.

—Israel W. Durham, former insurance commissioner, will again be a state senator, John M. Scott has resigned and Durham has been asked to be his successor.

—Within an hour after she had expressed a wish to die suddenly, Mrs. Rachel Pennepacker, of McVeytown, aged 67, expired at the home of a relative in Altoona, her death being caused by apoplexy.

—Thomas Howley has purchased the stock and fixtures of the Marion Supply Company. Mr. Howley has had great deal of experience in the grocery business and he will doubtless make a success in his new venture.

—Conductor H. B. Smith of the Reading railroad on Tuesday lifted a ticket from Reading to Mahoney Plane, sold Feb. 24, 1877, over thirty-one years old. The ticket called for "one first-class seat" instead of "one first-class passage" as present tickets read.

—Rev. Newton S. Baily who was recently appointed to the Houserville charge of the United Brethren church has decided to make Bellefonte his place of residence for the present. His many friends are glad to know that he will be among us for a time at least.

—A number of local sportsmen with guns asboulder were in the woods early Thursday morning in quest of game. The season promises to be a good one. The leaves falling early may be against the hunters, but the fog will nevertheless keep them damp for the greater portion of the forenoon.

—Frederick L. Cox former editor of the Altoona Mirror, who was reported drowned in Kentucky, is yet alive, and has informed the Mirror of the falseness of the report. He believes that his companion Thomas J. Campbell concocted the story while suffering from a hallucination as the result of his drinking habit.

—A handsome baby boy was left on the steps of the Home for the friendless at Williamsport the other evening. In the baby's clothes was found a note stating the parents had gone away on a four-weeks' visit and wanted them to take good care of it, and upon their return they would pay the institution $50.

—Melvin, the 4-year-old son of Ellis Robbins, of Emmons, a mountain town near the Sullivan County line, has been lost in the woods since Tuesday noon and although a determined search has been made by organized posses no trace of him can be found. A number of bears have been seen in the vicinity recently and it is feared the child has been eaten by one of them.

—Fall flittings have been numerous the past few days.

—The usual number of hunting accidents may be looked for now.

—The outing season is over but we may yet hope for some nice weather.

—The modern aristocrat is the man with twenty bushels of potatoes in his cellar.

—Democratic candidate for legislature J. C. Meyer will speak on local option in Philipsburg on Sunday.

—Altoona is to have another hospital, a movement with the object in view having been in progress some time.

—The authority for styles this season is the Printzess line. The Ladies Home Journal particularly recommends this line.

—It takes a couple of years to learn to talk and then it takes the rest of a life time to learn to keep from talking too much.

—A young doctor has recently discovered that the ankle is placed between the foot and the knee to keep the calf away from the corn.

—The borough of Loganton, Clinton county, is to have a national bank capitolized at $25,000. Over one half of the stock has been subscribed.

—Rev. J. F. Hower preached a very interesting and instructive sermon on the life of Jonah at the Evangelical church Sunday evening, taking as his text Jonah 1:3, "He paid the fare."

—The Daughters of the Bellefonte Chapter of the American Revolution, were entertained Thursday evening, by Miss Mira Humes and Miss Helen Overton, at the resident of Mrs. Louisa V. Harris on Allegheny St.

—A Punxsutawney man told his wife that he had named his speed mare for her, and imagine her chargrin when she went to the Brookville Fair and on looking over the program of races for the pretty name Marie Louise, she found it registered "The Holy Terror."

—While everyone in Bellefonte is familiar with good motion pictures the opportunity of seeing such a long list of high class pictures as was shown at the opera house Saturday night comes to us only through such men as Hadley. It was one of the most interesting collections of pictures ever seen in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside has decided to spend the winter in Bellefonte and will reside in the Graham house on North Allegheny street, which has been occupied by Mrs. James B. Lane. Mrs. Lane will make her home with Mrs. Louise Harris until the middle of October, when she will leave for Philadelphia.

—One of the important days of the Jew calendar is the Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur. It is observed as a fast day for twenty-four hours, from evening till evening on the tenth of Tishri, which began at six o'clock Sunday evening and continues until six o'clock Monday evening. The meaning underlying day is reconciliation.

—The official bulletin issued every two weeks by the American Railway Association on the demand for freight cars shows another big decrease in surplus cars for the period ending September 16th. On that day the number idle was only 173,587, a reduction of 49,045 having been brought about since the report for the previous fortnight.

—John Hopensheldt is in the Monroe county jail upon a charge of causing the death of his aged father, Samuel Hopensheldt, aged 83, a wealthy citizen of Cherry Valley, Hopensheldt came home fired with hard cider and full of fight and during an altercation with his father on the porch of his home is alleged to have struck his parent a blow with his fist on the head. In the fall the senior Hopensheldt struck his head, breaking his neck, dying instantly.

—A. M. Gann of Renovo, killed a large blacksnake in front of the Renovo News office on Monday evening. The snake measured just six feet in length Afterwards it was learned that the snake belonged to John Smith, living nearby, who had recently caught it and placed it in a box in his back yard. The rain warped boards and the snake crawled out Mr. Smith said it was harmless, as he could pick it up in his hands. He intended to send it to the Zoo in Washington.

—At the opening of the Bellefonte schools the faculty made strict provisions against hazing and the rules were rigidly enforced. However, some of the members of the high school who are bent on hazing the new members have taken to the idea of getting the new students at night and beating them unmercifully. Instances of this have been going on for the past few nights and complaints have reached us from parents concerning the treatment of their children. The teachers could do little to stop this practice at night but it is very cowardly on the part of the high school students to attack the freshmen at night when they are alone, and severe punishment should be meted out to the guilty ones.

—A bright chubby baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klinger Sunday morning.

—F. W. Crider has broken ground for the erection of two dwelling houses on Lamb street.

—Another portion of Spring street was filled up and given a top dressing of limestone during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shaughnessy of East Howard street announce the engagement of their daughter Agnes T. to Raymond M. Acheson of Niagara Falls, N. Y.

—While there was no frost Saturday morning it was the coolest morning of the fall and overcoats and wraps were quite conspicuous and the wearers quite comfortable.

—The survivors of the 22nd Pa. Vol. Cavalry will hold the annual reunion at Huntingdon on October 22. There will be meeting forenoon, afternoon and a camp fire in the evening.

—Any one interested in Sunday school who expects to attend the State Sunday school convention at Shamokin October 14 to 16 can obtain credentials by applying to the county secretary, Rev. W. Henry Schuyler, Centre Hall, Pa.

—The State College-Indian football game played at Wilkes-Barre Saturday afternoon. The State team accompanied by a band and a large number of students left Lemont at two o'clock Friday afternoon in a special train for Wilkes-Barre.

—In the window of a little book store in Eighth avenue, New York, was recently heaped a great pile of Bibles marked very cheap—never before were Bibles offered at such a price. Above them, in big letters, was this inscription:

Satan trembles when he sees
Bibles sold as low as these.

—Herbert Colfelt, of Philadelphia, son of Rev. Laurence M. Colfelt, who was located at State College several years ago, and who delivered two or more baccalaureate sermons at Pennsylvania State College, made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide by jumping into the Delaware river from the Fifth street wharf, Camden. Two men rowing nearby rescued him.

—The new Campus Water Company, which is to supply State College with water, has been given a charter by the state on approval by the Water Supply Commission. The State College Water Company, another water company for that place, but which concerns only the town, has filed an increase of stock from $11,000 to $22,000.

—We are in receipt of a beautifully bound volume of the life and works of William Howard Taft, American. The text is from the pen of Robert Lee Dunn, and the book is well printed and profusely illustrated. We are indebted to Capt. Charles F. Barclay, of Sinnemahoning, Congressman from this district, and candidate for re-election, for the copy we have on our desk.

—Jacob A. Wolfe, aged 74 years and a veteran of the civil war, is the head of one of the most noted families in the country. Mr. Wolfe resides in Lewisburg and is the father of the mayor of Williamsport. He is the father of eight sons and one daughter and the male members and descendants of the family will cast just 67 votes for Taft at the coming election.

—Bishop Darlington of this diocese has issued his annual pastoral announcing the first week of Advent (November 29 to December 5, inclusive) as a week of prayer to be observed daily. Instead of being confined to the members of the Protestant Episcopal church, however, the bishop addressed the letter to "Dear Christian Brethren of all Names" asking to join with the Episcopal church in observing the time.

—A large audience was present at the Methodist church Friday evening to hear the illustrated talk on China by Rev. James E. Dunning, of Osceola. Rev. Dunning is a very clear and forceful speaker and his talk was listened to with great interest from beginning to end. He dwelt upon the life and habits of the Chinese and the work of the missionaries among them as a civilizing agent. The illustrated talk was very instructive as well as being entertaining.

—"Indiana Folks" played to a fair sized audience at the German opera house Thursday evening and gave general satisfaction. Glady Sears, the girl with many dialects, was a feature of the program and her dialect vaudeville in the third act was well received. The part of Squire Dodson, the Indiana farmer was well played by Harry Brennan. The plot of the story is well laid and was well brought out by the all star cast.

—On the arrival of the funeral with the remains of the Rev. Dr. James W. Boal at the Union cemetery from Centre Hall, on Wednesday morning last, a short service was conducted at the grave, in which Dr. Eastman of Potteville. Dr. Schuyler of Centre Hall, and Dr. Platts of Bellefonte took part. Dr. Platts with the pall bearers, consisting of Fred Kurtz, Hammond Sechler, D. F. Fortney, Wm. P. Humes, F. H. Thomas and Dr. T. C. Vantries, joining the funeral procession at Pleasant Gap.

—October 16 has been set as the date for the dedication of the Woman's building at State College.

—Hunters may be thankful that none of them has been brought home filled full of shot instead of returning without any game.

WANTED—A position as housekeeper in a small family. No washing. Address. B. L., Blanchard, Pa.

—Miss M. H. Snyder announces millinery opening Oct. 9 and 10. Exclusive models will be ready; also the famous Phippe hats. 7-4t.

—The plant of the Williamsport Iron and Nail Company was destroyed by fire Monday evening, entailing a loss of $75,000. The fire started in the engine room from an explosion among some oil barrels.

—The twenty-fifth annual reunion of the 110th regiment, P. V. I. will be held at Tyrone Friday, Oct. 16. Any information desired in connection with the same cad be had by writing the secretary G. W. Buck of Altoona.

—John Noonan, a driver for R. B Reitnour, the Lock Haven drayman, was driving along the public road, west of Lockport, on Saturday afternoon, when one of two dogs he had with him came yelping from a cornfield with ears and face lacerated. Just then the larger dog chased a wildcat across the road and up the mountain, where it was lost to view. It will be remembered that two of these animals, one of which was killed were seen on the mountains above Lockport last year.

—Leathers Brothers of Howard, have purchased the Hamilton farm at State College, consisting of about thirty-five acres. They will lay the farm out in town lots and are planning for a big sale. The boys have been engaged in this business for the past several years and have been quite successful in their real estate ventures. They have opened an office in State College and will be pleased to meet all persons who are interested in real estate and town lots. They are a progressive lot of boys and will evidently boom the lot business in that town.

—A very pleasing, enjoyable and helpful out-of-door meeting was held in the interests of the Olive Branch Union Bible school Sunday afternoon in front of the chapel in Coleville. William Overton, a gifted young colored man, from Norfolk, Va., serving at the Bush House and otherwise, after conducting varied and appropriate exercises, delivered a fifteen minute address, entertaining as it was also instructive on the subject, "Wisdom the Principal Thing," clearly showing that Christ in the scripture is frequently called wisdom, so it was also easy for him to show that what Solomon said about wisdom is truthful in the teachings of the gospel.

—For the past two months or more two corps of Civil engineers have been at work surveying on the Allegheny mountains, with headquarters at Houtzdale. They have worked both westward and eastward but so far have not divulged the purpose of their surveys. Considerable speculation has been indulged in as to what the object is. It is thought by some to be the final survey of that once much-talked of air line from Chicago to New York, and several little incidents have come to light in part confirm this belief. But whether it is or not will probably not be known until the survey is complete and men put to work, should such prove to be the case.

—The glare of the big bright arc light at the Petriken hall Saturday evening gave notice that the Scenic was open to the public. The Coleville band discoursed some of their excellent music outside while inside there was scarcely standing room for the people. Four excellent pictures were shown and the customary illustrated song added, making a very up-to-date show. Pictures of the presidential candidates Bryan and Taft were shown, but judging from the applause the house is very unevenly divided in favor of the latter. Mr. Brown had a very auspicious opening night and gives promise of a good show each night. There are yet a few changes to be made, among them being the scene curtain which will be moved back upon the stage about fifteen feet as soon as a new lens is received.

"The Devil.

"The Devil" which has been the sensation of New York and London, was the attraction at the opera house Monday evening. From the time the curtin rose until the final drop the large audience never lost interest in the play. Words of commendation and appreciation were heard on every hand. Mr. George Lawrence as "The Devil" was a decided hit, as was also Miss Langdon as Olah and they were ably supported by an all star cast.

The story depicted modern every day social life and the machinations of "The Devil" in the love affairs of the characters, coupled with the superb acting, is what makes the play, of such intense heart interest.

Seldom does one meet a troupe of such gentlemanly and lady-like persons, and should Mr. Tempest return to Bellefonte with "The Devil" he will doubtless receive a capacity house. An appreciative feature was the order that prevailed and which is very necessary for such a play.

A Progressive Step.

Frank Fisher, of Boalsburg, and D. S. Drake, of Huntingdon, have secured an option on what is known as the Green water power at Milesburg with the intention of installing a hydro electrical power plant. Next Monday night they will lay their proposition for furnishing electricity for illuminating and manufacturing purposes before the council and ask for a franchise to erect poles and wires through Bellefonte.

Mr. Drake is a practical man in the electrical business and was one of the principal promoters of the Raystown Water Power company. If the borough council grants them a franchise to enter Bellefonte it is the intention of the promoters to begin work at once and have the plant in operation as soon as possible This new industry is a progressive step and should demand the careful consideration of the council when the matter is presented to them. The gentlemen claim they can furnish electricity at a less price than it is furnished at present.

Railroad Death Rates.

The railroads of Pennsylvania killed 92 persons during the month of August and injured 1101, making a total of accidents to 1193 persons.

In other words, the deaths were almost three a day and the injuries about 35 a day.

Fifty-five of the 92 deaths were caused by persons being struck by trains, locomotives or cars; eleven were caused by persons jumping off trains, locomotives or cars, seven by persons falling from trains, six at grade crossings, and four in collisions.

Of the fatal accidents 76 were on steam railroads and 16 on street railways. Of the injured 683 were on steam roads and 418 on street railways.

The steam roads killed no passengers, their death list comprising 22 employes, 48 trespassers and six others at grade crossings. The street railways killed one employe, four passengers, five trespassers and six others.
